East Scarred By Drought; Loss Heavy

Prices Take Upturn; Southern Maryland Among Hard-Hit Areas

NEW YORK (U)—A withering drought continued its grip on the eastern United States today, scarring some areas with the most severe damage in a quarter century.

Crop losses already had run into the tens of millions of dollars.

The parched region stretched from the Carolinas to Maine, inflicting its harshest punishment in southeast New England, southern New York, New Jersey, Virginia and Maryland.

Spotty rains leased some sections this week, and temporarily eased the situation in Pennsylvania, but over most of the area, the spattering showers helped little, and no genuine rain was in sight.

Across the broad swath of the country, including major sources of fruits and vegetables for the populous east and much of the rest of the nation, crops drooped and shriveled.

Prices Take Upturn

Prices for garden products took a sharp upturn.

In orchards, peaches and apples hung scantily and stunted. Long Island potato vines wilted. Tomato plants sagged in New Jersey. Corn tasseled knee-high in Maryland. Instead of its usual shoulder height, tobacco leaves burned in Virginia.

Many pastures were little more than scorched earth.

"They're just dry lots where farmers turn out their cows for exercise," said Harry Beggs, Dorchester, Md., county agent.

No estimate of dollar damage has yet been made in many of the stricken regions, but in places where it has been, the figures were in the multimillion zone. Some of them:

Rhode Island, 10 million; New Jersey, 10 million; Connecticut, approaching 10 million; Massachusetts, 8 million.

Southern Maryland Hit

In southern Maryland and along the state's Eastern Shore, a vital larder of tomatoes, corn and beans with its many canneries and frozen food plants, the drought was described as the worst since 1930.

Eight counties asked to be classified by the federal government as major disaster areas.

The entire states of Rhode Island and Connecticut also have asked to such classification so as to become eligible for federal aid.

The Virginia Agriculture Department said farmers stand to lose half their corn crop east of the Blue Ridge Mountains, with corn in the worst condition in history in the state's southeast commercial growing area.

Massachusetts has hired a rain-making meteorologist but he couldn't make rain without fairly heavy clouds to seed.

In some sections, rainfall this year has been 60 per cent below normal.

Following are additional details from various states:

MARYLAND — Drought worst since 1930 in southern and Eastern Shore area. Rain only 50 per cent normal so far this year. Most late string beans, pastures a complete loss. Corn stunted, with 50 to 75 per cent of crop lost. Robert (Continued on Page 2; Col. 3)

Missile News Bans Rapped

WASHINGTON (U)—Rep. Moss (D-Calif.) said today a Pentagon order restricting news about missiles appeared to be "an unrealistic strait-jacket of secrecy."

Moss, head of a House subcommittee seeking greater release of government information, said the memorandum attempts to limit information that cannot be hidden from the public anyway.

He said the order by Asst. Secretary of Defense Murray Snyder seems to contradict the publicity claims Snyder espoused when he first became the Pentagon's public relations chief last spring.

The lawmakers' observations were made in a letter to Snyder made public by the committee.

Women Tie Up Telephone; House, Barn, Shed Burn

BANGOR, Me.—(INS)—Max and Robert Pepper, owners of what yesterday was a handsome farm, said today there ought to be a law against people with incurable telephitis.

Their farm caught fire, and Robert rushed to the party line telephone to call the fire department. Two women were talking on the line . . . just yacking.

"Get off the line, please," implored Robert. "The barn's afire and I want to get the fire department."

Despite his pleas, the women kept on chatting for seven minutes. Finally one woman hung up and Pepper called the fire department.

High Court's Decisions Hit By Bar Unit

Efforts To Halt Red Infiltration Hurt; Cite Rights As Theoretical

LONDON (U)—The American Bar Assn.'s Committee on Communism warned today that efforts to combat Communist infiltration may be endangered "if the courts lean too far backward in the maintenance of theoretical individual rights."

The committee called for legislation "to overcome the effect of Supreme Court decisions" of the past 15 months, including laws to "safeguard the confidential nature of the FBI files."

In Discussion Groups

The committee's report was issued as the 3,000 delegates to the association's 80th annual convention—being held in both New York and London this year—split up into discussion groups today.

The committee said: "It is traditional and right that our courts are zealous in protecting individual rights. It is equally necessary that the executive and legislative branches take effective action to rid our country against Communist infiltration and aggression."

May Tie Hands

"If the courts lean too far backward in the maintenance of the theoretical individual rights, it may be that we have tied the hands of our country and have rendered it incapable of carrying out the first law of mankind—the right of self preservation."

The report was a direct slap at U. S. Chief Justice Earl Warren, under whose leadership the court has taken a "liberal" trend and who has sided with the majority on most of the controversial decisions in recent months. Warren is attending the convention.

Kilday Defends GI Crimes Bill

WASHINGTON (U)—Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) today challenged as "not valid" an administration argument that hundreds more GIs might wind up in foreign jails under a bill he is sponsoring.

Kilday's bill would require that overseas servicemen accused of offenses while on duty be tried by court-martial rather than surrendered to foreign courts. The countries in which the men were stationed would retain the jurisdiction they now have—but frequently waive—over off-duty offenses.

Fire chief John Nelligan said that if the fire fighters had reached the blaze sooner, they might have saved the house, even if they lost the barn and a shed.

Robert and Max estimated their loss at $30,000.

Maine has no law providing a penalty in such cases where party liners refuse to permit an emergency call to be put through.

The women, taxed with having been unneighborly, replied indignantly: "Why I never heard such a rude man in all my life. All he did was shout 'Get off the line.'"

Man Missing In Air Mishap

VICTORVILLE, Cal.—(INS)

—A male passenger apparently was blown out of an airplane today by a mysterious explosion that opened a gaping hole in the side of the plane.

The accident was reported by the pilot of a Western Airlines plane when it made an emergency landing at Victorville on a scheduled flight from Las Vegas to Los Angeles.

The airline said the unexplained explosion blew a hole seven feet wide and four feet high in the lavatory section of the Convair plane.

School Bill Vote Slated; Defeat Due

WASHINGTON (U)—The House votes today on the 12-billion-dollar school construction bill amid predictions the measure will be killed.

But although many members said privately the measure had no chance, Rep. McConnell (R-Pa.), one of those leading the fight for it, said he still thought it had better than a 50-50 chance.

Opponents, during two days of debate, have emphasized the program's cost and what they refer to as the danger of federal control of schools.

Those favoring the bill contend that without federal aid, many states cannot afford the schoolrooms needed to educate the increasing numbers of school-age children.

Still to come was the issue of segregation.

Rep. Wainwright (R-NY) said he would offer an amendment to deny federal aid to school districts making no effort to obey the Supreme Court decision against segregation in the classroom.

Schedule Change Causes 'Crusade' Attendance Drop

NEW YORK (INS)—Dwindling attendance at the Madison Square Garden rallies of Billy Graham's crusade to "bring God to New York" was blamed today on the "normal delay" between planning for the crusade's extension and its announcement.

"It doesn't discourage me in the least," said Graham, who last night preached to 14,500—only 1,000 more than the smallest crowd since the drive opened May 16.

Graham's subject last night dealt with the evils of self-righteousness and pride. He said: "God doesn't compare you with your neighbor . . . the only person you have to match up with is in his eyes, is Jesus Christ, His Son."

At Graham's call 349 persons came forward to make "decisions for Christ" boosting the total to date to 37,811. Total gathered attendance now stands at 1,232,100.

Jet-Powered British Drive Blasts Rebels

Ancient Oman Capital Hit; Ground Forces' Action Not Expected

MANAMA, Bahrain (U)—The rebel-held fort at Nizwa, ancient capital of Oman, was the Royal Air Force's target for today as Britain kept up its jet-powered drive to put down an uprising against the Sultan of Muscat and Oman.

British jets firing rockets and machine guns flew 12 sorties against rebel tribesmen in the rugged desert region yesterday and claimed they killed Ft. Izki, in the Wadi Halfin area.

Officials in London said the use of ground troops in support of pro-British Sultan Said bin Taimur was not planned, but two companies of the Cameronian Rifles from Kenya arrived at the RAF's Sharjah base in Oman. The veteran campaigners were fully equipped for desert action.

Claim Interior Control
Rebel spokesmen in Cairo claimed their forces had taken over most of the interior of the Arabian Peninsula sultanate and said many of the Sultan's followers were coming over to their side. They declared the Sultan now must depend on British support alone.

The rebels, headed by Imam Ghaleb ben Ali, former religious leader of Oman, moved against the Sultan last week and were said to have seized control of about 2,000 square miles of the 82,000-square-mile sultanate.

Asks British Help
The Sultan, whose coastal monarchy has been linked with Britain by treaty since 1839, called on the British for help. The RAF responded. (Continued on Page 2; Col. 4)

U. S. 'Last Hope' For Hungarians

WASHINGTON (U)—The Hungarian Catholic League of America said today the United States is the "last hope" for more than 9,000 Hungarians who fled into Yugoslavia.

The league report, written by Adam Tarnoczy, said the refugees are living under concentration camp conditions. They fled their homeland during last fall's revolt.

Airman Back On Duty White Sidewall Haircut Conviction Thrown Out

TOKYO (U)—A U. S. Air Force commander today threw out the conviction of an airman who refused to get a "white sidewall" haircut freeing him from four months of hard labor, a $200 fine and reduction in rank to private.

The airman, 29-year-old Donald Wheeler of Cortez, Colo., was convicted of disobeying an order. He claimed he had only "challenged" it and said today if given the order again "I'd probably refuse it . . . or I'd challenge it."

As for future haircuts, an Air Force officer said there's no longer any requirement on "white sidewalls"—prescribed for the Far East Command Honor Guard of which Wheeler was a member—because the unit has been disbanded. A "white sidewall" strips the head bare to the crown.

Col. Charles W. Johnstone of Reno, Nev., Wheeler's base commander tossed out the conviction, saying he had found legal procedural errors in the summary court-martial that ended Monday. He added there would not be another trial.

"I have talked with Airman Wheeler and am convinced that he has undergone a considerable change of attitude," Johnstone said in a statement. "I do not consider that further trial would serve the cause of justice, the interests of the Air Force or the individual."

Wheeler was released from the Air Force stockade at Haneeda Air Force Base, where he had been confined since Monday night. (Continued on Page 2; Col. 4)

Jury Trial Dispute Clouds Civil Rights

Enforcing Clauses Cut By Senators

52-38 Ballot Leaves In Only Voting Right Issue; Injunction Out

WASHINGTON (U)—The administration's civil rights bill, with one key section sheared off by the Senate, ran into a new cross-fire of dispute today over a proposed jury trial amendment.

The jury trial proposal was called up hard on the heels of the 52-38 vote by which the Senate late yesterday ripped out of the House-passed bill all enforcement authority except that to safeguard the right to vote.

The measure, as it now stands, would permit the attorney general to obtain federal court injunctions against violations or threatened violations of voting rights, but not to enforce other civil rights.

In the latter category, under decisions of the Supreme Court, full racial integration in public schools, buses, swimming pools and other public places.

Authority to use injunctions to enforce these and other civil rights generally was erased from the bill with the adoption of an amendment offered by Senators Anderson (D-NM) and Aiken (R-Vt.).

Thirty-four Democrats and 18 Republicans voted for the amendment, while 13 Democrats and 25 Republicans voted against it.

The next major test in the battle over the legislation began to shape up immediately when the Senate Democratic Leader, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, called up a jury trial amendment proposed by Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.).

Under the bill, persons accused of violating injunctions obtained by the government could be convicted and jailed for contempt of court without a jury trial.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said in an interview he thought the amendment would be defeated and the bill's supporters could preserve its voting rights section intact.

He said the issue was not likely to come to a vote before the first of next week.

The adoption of the Anderson-Aiken amendment was a resounding victory for Southern foes of the legislation, but Sen. Javits (R-NY) said he hoped it would arouse civil rights supporters "to close ranks" and stand fast by the rest of the bill.

Textile Union Quiz Reopens

WASHINGTON (U)—The Senate Rackets Committee resumes today its investigation of alleged misuse of funds of the United Textile Workers funds by union officials.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) called the union's President Anthony Valente for a first round of questioning and Lloyd Klenert, its secretary-treasurer, for further quizzing about uses to which some $100,000 of UTW money was put.

McClellan has accused both officials of diverting union money for their personal use.

Klenert has acknowledged that $37,000 of UTW money was used as down payments to buy homes for him and Valente in what he termed a proper deal.

TARGET OF GUNMAN — Mayor Eugene Willis, 44-year-old mayor of Huntington, W. Va., was shot at in his automobile last night but escaped injury. The bullet narrowly missed him. Willis, who obtained a permit to carry a gun after telephone threats, fired back, but his assailant, also in an automobile, escaped. Story on Page 2. (AP Photos)

Skeletons Take Son To Spain

BARCELONA, Spain (INS)—Conceding Red Skelton arrived in Barcelona with his family last night amid reports that his leukemia-stricken son, Richard, 9, may be examined by a Spanish specialist.

A Spanish doctor, Mas Magro, of the city of Alicante, recently offered to try a method of treatment he has developed for leukemia sufferers.

Richard, who has been given less than a year to live by American physicians, was taken by his parents for a visit to many of the sights of Europe.

Union Labor 'Shakedown' Jury Returns

NEW YORK (U)—After more than 24 hours of rest, the jury resumes deliberations today in the case of labor racketeer Johnny Dio and two codefendants accused of a $30,000 union labor shakedown conspiracy.

General Sessions Judge John A. Mullen sent the weary all-night jury to a hotel yesterday morning after it reported it was unable to agree on a verdict.

Directing the jurors to give up discussion of the case during their respite at the hotel, the judge said he hoped the rest would be "very helpful and beneficial."

Dio, 43, whose real name is Dioguardi, is on trial with Samuel Goldstein, 42, president of Local 239 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and Max Chester, 42, former secretary-treasurer of Local 405 of the Retail Clerks International Assn.

The three are charged with seeking the $30,000 from two electrical firms as the price of labor peace. There was testimony at the month-long trial that they actually got $10,000.

The indictment charges each defendant with one count of conspiracy and three counts of bribery. Each count is punishable on conviction by up to one year in jail and a fine of $500.

Professor Avers Cancer-Cigarettes Link Not Proved

WASHINGTON (INS)—The director of a Yale University cancer study insisted today that no link between cigaret smoking and lung cancer has been demonstrated by scientific experiments.

Professor Harry S. N. Greene, chairman of the Department of Pathology at the Yale Medical School, contended that despite a "barage of propaganda . . . (there are no pertinent data on which to base a definitive answer."

Dr. Greene told a House subcommittee probing cigaret advertising that "no cancer resulted" when tobacco was applied to highly susceptible animal tissues in the Yale laboratories.

He took issue with Dr. Ernest Wynder of New York's Sloan-Kettering Institute who testified last week that his experiments showed there were "cancer-causing chemicals in cigrarets."

Two Atomic Blast Clouds Rise Quickly

Newsmen Barred; No Fallout Slated Outside Test Area

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (U)—An atomic device shattered the pre-dawn stillness of the Nevada desert at 6:30 a.m. (PDT) today with the power of almost 20,000 tons of TNT.

It was the 10th shot in the atomic energy commission's current test series. It was detonated from a balloon 500 feet in the air.

Today's detonation was a closed shot—newsmen were barred from the site of the AEC's big Yucca Flat test center.

Newsmen and photographers witnessed the test from Angel's Peak, off the site and some 55 miles from the testing grounds.

From there reporters saw a double mushroom cloud rise quickly following a brilliant flash. The mushroom clouds boiled swiftly up into the sky and soon disappeared in cumulus clouds overhead.

Dust kicked up by the blast's jarring shock wave was visible from Angel's Peak, but no shock was felt there.

The bright flash from the blast—reflected off the cloud layer—was clearly visible in Las Vegas.

An AEC spokesman said that radioactive fallout from today's explosion was expected to be significant only on the test site and the vast bombing range adjacent to it.

Today's blast—code-named "Ovens" for a mountain near Bakersfield, Calif.—was originally set for July 17 and then postponed for technical reasons—weather and because a previous open shot had precedence.

Conditions Satisfactory
The AEC spokesman said that wind conditions for today's shot appeared to be highly satisfactory.

Last night's weather evaluation appeared to be highly satisfactory. Last night's weather evaluation check indicated winds low in speed, and from different directions—which would bring about fairly wide diffusion of radioactive fallout.

Cross-current winds should scatter the fallout in a pattern slightly west of due north of the Yucca Flat site, the AEC said.

Approximately 100 U. S. military observers were on hand for the blast.

Shot No. 9 yesterday was a "Mighty Mite" about half nominal, but producing one of the most jarring shock waves of the series. It was fired from a 500-foot tower.

Truckers Pay Street 'Toll'

BALTIMORE (U)—Baltimore's East Fayette Street is fast becoming a toll road for heavy trucks—most of them from out-of-state.

Last night and today, 81 more drivers paid fines of $5.25 for using the street from the Fallway to Highland Avenue between 7 p. m. and 7 a. m.

Through vehicles weighing three tons or more are barred from the street during those hours. The city traffic department imposed the ban as a result of complaints from residents who said the noise and fumes from the trucks made sleep impossible.

Through trucks are required to use a truck route along North Avenue.

Since a police crackdown got underway last Sunday, 156 truck drivers have been arrested.

West Stalling Disarm Talks, Soviet Claims

Bulgarian Calls Effort One To Aid Adenauer In Voting Campaign

MOSCOW (U)—Premier Bulganin has accused the West of stalling the disarmament talks in an effort to aid West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's election campaign.

Bulganin included that accusation in a 5,000-word letter to British Prime Minister Macmillan made public last night. He also proposed that the United States and the European powers pledge mutually to withhold help from any aggressor in Europe.

The Bulgarian letter was a reply to a June 14 letter from Macmillan, which in turn had answered a previous Bulgarian communication on international questions.

Linking the Sept. 15 West German elections with the disarmament talks, Bulganin charged the West with prolonging the arms deadlock by bringing up "this or that political problem" to aid Adenauer's re-election campaign.

"The statements of West Germany do not conceal . . . a deal has been made between the governments of certain Western powers and the Adenauer government," Bulganin declared.

Presumably the Soviet Premier directed to Western insistence that political issues such as the reunification of Germany will have to be settled before a comprehensive disarmament agreement can be reached. The West says, however, that unsettled political issues will not bar a partial, first-stage agreement.

Bulganin said the current U. N. Disarmament subcommittee talks in London hold little hope of success unless the West, and particularly Britain, shows some reciprocity in getting some disarmament steps under way.

GOP, Demo Coalition Split By Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (U)—The coalition of Republicans and Democrats which had supported the Eisenhower administration's civil rights bill cracked up yesterday.

Still in doubt is the question whether the group can reform its lines and regain the strength it showed in bringing the bill before the Senate originally.

Truck Swerves To Avoid Dog; At Least 58 Injured

NEW HAVEN (INS)—Police today listed "at least" 53 injured, two critically, in a fire and explosion in New Haven last night in which a trailer truck crashed as it swerved to avoid hitting a dog.

In critical condition at Grace Hospital were Woodford Underwood, 59, the driver, and Wilford Godfrey, 35, his helper, both of Hartford. Both men were pinned in the cab when a load of heavy dock machinery shifted.

Underwood was freed with serious internal injuries almost at once. Godfrey was trapped more than an hour and a half. With 75 per cent of his body burned by the explosion, he begged for someone to shoot him.

"Don't let me burn to death, kill me quickly," Godfrey shouted from his trap. Witnesses credited his survival to the heroism of one fireman whose clothes were burned off as he stood his ground with a hand extinguisher when the explosion rocked the wreckage.

He later was identified as fireman Vincent Curran, who escaped with minor burns of the face.

The explosion spewed gasoline from the truck's two, fully loaded 100-gallon tanks over a crowd estimated at 200.

The dog escaped unharmed.

Has Received Threats:

Assassin's Bullet
Narrowly Misses
Huntington Mayor

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—A gunman who pumped a single shot into his car, received another telephone threat today within 12 hours after the attempt on his life.

The call was received at the funeral home operated by the 42-year-old, first-term Republican mayor while he was on his way to his office.

Police Have No Clues

Police continued without clues to the identity of the assassin who fired at almost point blank range from a moving car into the mayor's automobile as he was driving home from a meeting at the city hall last night. The popular Willis himself could offer no help.

The shot, through the open front left window of his car, narrowly missed Willis and bored through the closed window on the opposite side at about upper-chest level.

The mayor said he had become alarmed over a car following him and had drawn his pistol out of its holster and placed it beside him.

Because of the threats he had obtained a permit last Friday. Reacting to the shot, he grabbed the pistol and fired once at the car through the windshield, and again after quickly stopping and getting out.

Visibly Shaken

Visibly shaken after the experience, which followed repeated threats to himself and family, the mayor said in answer to a question whether the shooting might have been connected with vice in the city.

"I like to think that it wasn't. Huntington has no organized vice situation."

Capt. Hercl H. Garten, assistant police chief, said: "At first we thought these calls came from a prankster. Now we know they didn't."

Assailant Escapes

A double shift of police officers scoured this Ohio River city all night in a concentrated search for the unknown assailant.

Mayor Willis, 24 years a funeral director and only seven months a politician, has been receiving threatening telephone calls for about six weeks. Last Friday, he obtained a permit from Circuit Court and began carrying a pistol.

He used it last night, he said, firing twice at the fleeing vehicle. Visibly shaken when police arrived, the 44-year-old mayor was at a loss to explain the shooting.

"I don't know why in God's green earth anyone would want to kill me," he said.

Humphrey's
Office Tenure
Ends Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey leaves his government post next Monday.

The White House announced Humphrey's departure date yesterday, and said Robert B. Anderson will be sworn in that morning as Humphrey's successor. Anderson is a former deputy secretary of defense.

On May 29, the White House disclosed what had been expected—that Humphrey would leave the Cabinet. But no effective date for the resignation was given at that time.

G. Miller, Wicomico County agent, estimates corn loss alone in county at $800,000. Wheat yield only about 16 bushels an acre, compared to 54 last year. Half cantaloupe and watermelon crop ruined. Tobacco crops in Southern Maryland hard hit, with losses put as high as 50 per cent. Blooms dropping off tomato plants. Migrating laborers going back south because no crops to pick.

PENNSYLVANIA—Dewey Boster, of agriculture department, says Tuesday's rain should save suffering crops—tobacco, potatoes, corn and soybeans—if there is supplementary rainfall soon.

Growth of apples and peaches had been stopped by dry spell, but those crops should fill out now, since the rain. Most of state got an inch or more. Dry spell had hit southeastern area worst, particularly pastures and hay meadows. Small grain crops harvested before it became severe, however, without loss.

Prostitutes Ordered To Leave Wheeling

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Police Chief William Thomas ordered all of Wheeling's known prostitutes to leave the city by midnight last night.

GOP 'Writes Out' Convention's 'Joe Smith' In Official Records

WASHINGTON (AP)—The mythical Joe Smith who was unceremoniously banished from the 1956 Republican convention has now been virtually written out of the party.

At least so it would appear from an examination of the official record of the proceedings, released yesterday by the GOP National Committee.

The now-famous utterance of Convention Chairman Joe Martin—"You take your Joe Smith and get out of here"—is nowhere to be found in this account of the San Francisco proceedings.

There also is no mention of the fact that delegate Terry Carpenter of (Scottsbluff) Nebraska was escorted from the convention hall after he tried to nominate Smith for vice president.

Carpenter reappeared shortly, confessing to newsmen that Joe was an imaginary fellow and saying he's tried to nominate him only to enliven "a pretty dull show."

The official record does record this exchange between Martin and Carpenter:

"Mr. Terry Carpenter, delegate from Nebraska—We are going to nominate Joe Smith."

"The permanent chairman—Joe—who?"

"Mr. Terry Carpenter of Nebraska—Joe Smith, (laughter)."

"The permanent chairman—Nebraska reserves the right to nominate Joe Smith, whoever he is, (laughter)."

But somewhere around there Martin banged his gavel and told Carpenter to take his Joe Smith and depart.

It was an unforgettable picture for many of the millions of television watchers, and the nonexistent Joe Smith whom the Republicans didn't want was welcomed into the deletions of any major matter, Democratic party many times in committee aide said yesterday.

Did Martin tell Carpenter to "rostrum. I guess the official reporter didn't hear him say it."

"Oh, he said it all right," the aide said, "but there was a lot of hubbub at the time around the Name of Nixon."

As it turned out they nominated someone else anyway.

Sound Words

NO WESTERNER'S words are likely to throw even a small roadblock in the path of the powerful Asian-African drive to stamp out colonialism in every corner of those continents. Nevertheless, for the sake of factual and moral balance, Adlai Stevenson's words on the subject are welcome. Stevenson has just completed his second tour of Africa. As a leading Democrat, he knows what he says will be attended to, not only in the United States but in many world capitals. In these circumstances, he has chosen to make responsible utterance. Having closely examined British and French rule in the African colonies, he has dealt out warm praise to both nations for their conduct of colonial administration in the broad belt of central Africa.

TO BE SURE, HE has left North Africa out of this picture, and by that fact seems to imply a harsher judgment of French rule there. However that may be, he has had the good sense to offer a discriminating judgment on a subject that most often is discussed in sweeping generalizations which leave out all the delicate but important gray shades. And Stevenson has had the courage to speak out when he could be fairly positive that what he said would not find favor in such capitals of anti-colonialism as New Delhi. It would have been so much easier simply to say "colonialism is bad and it must go wherever it exists."

INSTEAD, the two-time Democratic presidential candidate declared that the part played by Britain and France in central Africa was "extremely impressive and little understood by the rest of the world." He credited both powers, as well as other European colonial administrators, with exercising their responsibilities in the area in a "most advanced, responsible and enlightened manner." Wherever in the world statesmen and citizens still listen to facts rather than just to the pounding of emotional tides, Stevenson's words should find ready audience. And while they surely will not change Prime Minister Nehru's vote, they may make it harder for him and others of like mind to sell gullible peoples on the idea that everything the West has done in the name of colonialism is black as pitch.

Silly Season

AN ANNUAL summertime product is the national and international beauty contests. Nothing, perhaps, could be a more apt accompaniment of the silly season. This year's series of contests got off to a hilarious start. The "Cinderella girl" who won the title of "Miss U.S.A." turned out to have missed being a miss by two marriages—to say nothing of two children. She was promptly dethroned. And just as the howl over this was subsiding, came the word that the grand winner of the "Miss Universe" title was a Peruvian girl who is only 17 years old—not the minimum 18 required by the contest rules. For this discrepancy the Peruvian ambassador provided the bland explanation that "Anybody in Peru who is over 17 years and six months is considered to be 18." So, "Miss Universe" was permitted to retain her crown and sceptre. Now all we are waiting for is the "Miss America" contest in September. Wanna bet that the winner won't turn out to be a man?

Summer Athlete

BEHOLD THE summer athlete, fat and short of wind after a long winter of indolence. He goes forth at dawn to drive 200 miles and then row a boat in pursuit of the wily bass. He leaps about on the tennis court in the heat of the day, and plays 18 holes of golf before sundown. At picnics and family reunions, he charges about as he was wont to do in the days of his youth. Nor does he confine his strenuous activities to games and fun. He hauls back dirt to repair a bad spot in his lawn; he stoops and twists to weed his flower garden. As the temperature rises he is to be seen, red-faced and panting, doggedly waging the battle of the mown grass. Behold the summer athlete! He works hard and he plays hard, ignoring both the years and the paunch that the years have duly provided. Behold him where he lies there on his bed of pain—the fallen warrior, no wiser than he is young.

Limelight Makes Senators Squirm

WASHINGTON — The close observer of the Senate these days comes to understand why Senators so rarely win nominations for the Presidency, and why "outsiders" are so heavily favored — Governors, chiefly, with occasionally a military man or a business man.

In the highly controversial Civil Rights issue now before the Senate you can see exposed, more dramatically than usual, the danger inherent in the necessity of Senators to go on record, day after day, on major issues before the people. That record can be dug up later, as it usually is, to be thrown at a Senator. Neither Governors nor other "outsiders" live in such a goldfish bowl.

The Senate chamber is air cooled. But you can almost see the beads of perspiration as Senators known to be looking longingly toward 1960's national nominating conventions — and that's a lot of Senators — squirm under the compulsion of making decisions on this or that provision, or this or that amendment, related to the Eisenhower Civil Rights bill.

THE WAY OF the compromiser, like that of the transgressor, is hard. Cast in that difficult role, that could bring trouble later, are the two party leaders — Senator William F. Knowland, the Republican leader, who is a candidate for the 1960 Republican Presidential nomination, and Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, the Democratic leader, who is regarded as a candidate for his party's nomination.

Beyond his own personal ambition, Senator Knowland carries the load of the broader assignment to get credit for his party for a Civil Rights bill adequate enough to win converts among Negro voters who hold a balance-of-power position in big urban centers in the North.

Senator Johnson's task is obviously harder. For, beyond his own personal stake, he must keep his fellow Southerners, either in their speeches or in amendments they propose, from pulling the Dixie brand on the party that might increase the exodus from it, by Negroes, that began in last year's Presidential election.

Vice President Nixon's 1960 Presidential ambitions also involved him in the Civil Rights issue.

HOWEVER, his position is less hazardous than that of his chief rival for the Republican prize — and his fellow Californian — Senator Knowland. He does not have to go on record, except in the rare event of a tie vote in the Senate, on the many delicate issues that come up for decision. Already he has aligned himself with Civil Rights champions in two rulings he made, and there he can rest for the present.

But, for real trouble — take the Democrats.

Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, for example. His dramatic run in last August's Democratic Convention for the Vice Presidential nomination, in which you will recall he was barely nosed out by Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, gave him ideas about the 1960 Democratic Presidential nomination.

Southern delegations contribed handsomely to his near win at Chicago last summer. Ever since, he has demonstrated a spirit of kindness toward the South and toward his Southern colleagues in the Senate.

YOU CAN imagine what sort of a swivel he's in today trying to please both North and South. He has kept out of the fight so far. In the preliminary test-voting he straddled nicely.

He voted, first, with the Southerners to send the House bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee, where a similar bill had been bottled up by Senator Jim Eastland of Mississippi for months. But later, after the House bill was sent directly to the Senate calendar, he voted to take it off the calendar and consider it, and then voted against the subsequent motion of Senator Wayne Morse to send it to the Judiciary Committee for two weeks.

Another Senator ambitious for the 1960 Democratic nomination — Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota — seems more melolized toward the South on the Civil Rights issue than nine years ago when, a veritable firebrand, he threw the 1948 Democratic Convention into an explosive melee.

We can imagine that Democratic Governors, such as Governor Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, George M. Leader of Pennsylvania, G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, and Averell Harriman of New York, are much happier sitting in the wings, going about their business, and not having to vote day after day on delicate issues.

Senate Name Calling Not Worth The Effort

WASHINGTON — (NEA)—Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas rose and congratulated his distinguished colleagues of both parties the other day for their high level and statesmanlike debate on civil rights.

This was observing the best traditions of the Senate.

Taking this tip from his leader, Oklahoma's Sen. Bob Kerr stood up on his hind legs a few hours later and declared that no man could help President Eisenhower with his fiscal policies "because one cannot do that without brains and he does not have them."

Later Kerr sought to change the record to make it read, "without fiscal brains, and he does not have them."

This caused Sen. Homer Capehart of Indiana to object and let the original insult stand, as uttered.

TO THIS Senator Kerr replied in effect that it was only Senator Capehart who had no brains at all and that he was a big bag of wind besides.

Capehart won the round, however, and the galleries applauded him when he declared, "I would rather be a friend of the President of the United States, with no brains, than be a friend of the senator from Oklahoma with brains."

Capehart further declared that Kerr could call him anything he pleased because he wasn't afraid of the Oklahoma.

Whereupon Kerr got in the last word by quoting his father to the effect that, "They that know nothing, fear nothing."

THIS MAY BE snappy repartee in the old fields. But it reflects no credit on the senator from Oklahoma, even if he is a multimillionaire and was born in a log cabin.

It is an old trick in rough and tumble politics that when a debater can't win an argument on logic, he calls his opponent a dirty name.

That is supposed to demolish him. More often than not, however, name-calling merely exposes the weakness of the name-caller.

"GIVE 'EM HELL" Harry Truman was always a great one at pasting labels on his opponents. In a more restrained and polite manner, Sen. Harry F. Byrd has by, injured in car-truck mishap near home.

THIRTY YEARS AGO July 25, 1927

Myron Andrews, 28, Eckhart, died of injuries suffered in mining accident.

Charter granted for Oldtown-Green Spring bridge by West Virginia.

FORTY YEARS AGO July 25, 1917

Allegany County quota for initial draft for war services was 296 men.

City Hall auditorium jammed for talk on "War for Law and Civilization" by Congressman H. W. Temple of Pennsylvania.

Glancing Sideways

PUEBLA, Mex. — Chuchito Fuente telephoned from Mexico City to Veracruz and he was indignant.

"I have been told an incredible thing," he said with some scorn in his voice. "Pepe Denegri said you passed through Puebla and did not show any concern with the theatre. He said he twice tried to introduce the matter into conversation and you . . ."

"What theatre?" I asked. "I don't remember any . . ."

"That establishes it," said Chuchito. "I will be very simple, as with a child, although as a drama critic from New York with veering pretensions, it should have been your first thought. Bueno: there exists in Puebla (a) possibly the oldest theatre in North America and (b) absolutely the oldest theatre still in use. It was completed in 1759. It has New York's working theatre any older? Or Williamsburg or Boston or any place? No. Get out of these dull jungles you're in and go see it. Report to me afterward."

SO WE PUT gasoline in the wagon and retraced the road up across the pass at 11,000 feet, with the brakes getting hot and odoriferous on the way down the other side.

Through Orizaba with the magnificent view of the great, soaring volcano clad in ermine. Past Fortin de Las Flores and its gardenia swimming pool and back into Puebla. A long, arduous, trying ride. The hotel welcomed us back and we inquired at the desk about El Teatro Principal.

"You drove your car all the way from Veracruz back here to look at that?" the man asked, stunned by incredulity. "It's a theatre. People go to it, as they do in theatres the world over. It's nothing exceptional. But satisfy yourself. It's three blocks across, at the corner, and two blocks down, through the street of the candy makers."

THE BUILDINGS became a humbler and the streets more narrow as we walked. It seemed unlikely that such a famous theatre could be tucked away down these little streets. Once we inquired and a man shrugged and said: "Another block. It is no marvel to see. And, in another block we saw it. Separate, distinct, amazingly lovely, a jewel-box of a little theatre, white in the noon sun with fabulous doors of iron-studded wood.

Six little boys tumbled and wrestled in the foyer. They stopped their pupping long enough to show that they thought it was immensely funny for anyone to come here in daylight.

We walked in and stood inside a theatre which has been operating for 200 years, lacking two. Three tiered balconies formed a triple "U" from stage-right all the way around the side walls, across the back and down the opposite side walls to stage-left.

In dead center, at the rear, was the Royal Box, Governor's Box, President's Box, or Whoever's Box—red velvet for hanging, and a pair of little rooms at the back of it for visiting between acts.

THE CURTAIN was up and the stage floor had a sharp rake to up-stage. There was a foot-light trough and the prompter's box. An aged, slightly crippled man, leaning on a cane, stood in stage center looking down. The stage was half covered with long sheets of brownish paper, each strip about four feet wide.

Five young men with charcoal sticks knelt over the paper and drew designs as his cane tip traced them on the paper. He was exasperated with them. Scenic designers are, by profession, exasperated men.

"For a new production," he said in Spanish, looking up. "In three weeks. Hopefully. I have mules for assistants. You know theatres? This is an old one, but it suffices us. Is it the oldest living theatre in all North America? They say so. But what then? A theatre is made to be used. In all the world there is nothing as dead and useless as an unused theatre."

"History? I suppose so. Every new production makes history for some theatre somewhere. It's nothing to be excited about. Some theatre had to be the oldest. This happened to grab the brass ring."

Your report, Chuchito.

It's Just For The Birds

WASHINGTON. — This story about the $12,000,000 meal of some hungry starlings obviously is strictly for the birds.

Let us begin at the beginning, which was in 1954 when Jack P. Burrus, President of Burrus Mills, Inc., of Dallas, Tex., convinced the federal government that one way to store mountains of surplus wheat was under specially engineered tents.

He built the tents—and they were whoopies, about the size of Ringling Brothers' Big Top of fond memory — in rows at St. Joseph, Mo., and Ft. Worth, Tex. Each one was designed to hold a million bushels of grain.

INTO 37 OF these gigantic, plastic-coated tents the Commodity Credit Corp. squirreled 37,000,000 bushels of wheat. It went in at the top, with the help of a kind of spray gun, and soon there were 37 conical hills of wheat under cover.

Then came those danged birds. Despite all efforts of Burrus and Co. to chase them, they pecked holes into the plastic to get at the bird food. Next it rained. This turned the wheat on top into a mass of mush.

Then the sun came out. It cooked the breakfast food. This turned sour and began to ferment. It heaved. That caused the tent poles to shift. Water ran underneath the piles of grain.

THE FASTIDIOUS birds sniffed at this mess and flew away of their own free will. Where they left off, the bugs took over. Mostly, these were moths, which placed their eggs in convenient locations. The eggs turned to weevils — and poor old Burrus finally called for help.

Federal inspectors took a close look and came up with word that more than half of the 37,000,000 bushels was unfit for human consumption.

The government hauled this out and started shipping it abroad at cut-rate prices for stock feed.

The loss has been estimated at $12,000,000.

THE COMMODITY Creditors held back $4,000,000 of Burrus' storage payments, took first mortgages on his mills and elevators (which are well scattered because he ran a big business) and handed him a bill for $4,000,000 more. They expected him and his bankers to pay this by October.

So there was the sun-tanned Burrus, listening to the federal tell the House Governmental Operations subcommittee, under Rep. L. H. Fountain, the havoc wrought by those birds. Burrus smoked one cigarette after another for civilian defense seems to be in order. We must accept the fact that it can happen here—and that it does adequate preparation can save lives.

It will not be easy to change the public attitude toward civilian defense, yet with all of the modern methods of communication at our disposal, with all of our knowledge of the techniques of education and persuasion, the task should not be impossible.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK — Anyone who loves the theater can have a wonderful time in the average business office just watching how its inhabitants kill time.

This form of free entertainment holds more dramatic interest than a trip to the theater because at a theater you can see only one play at a time.

In the average office, however, you watch anywhere from 10 to 100 actors putting on individual shows at the same time. If you look around, maybe you'll find some of the following types of timekillers acting in your own office:

THE EFFICIENT Housekeeper — Every morning he spends cleaning out his desk, every afternoon rearranging his files. But he is never quite ready tomorrow to attack the day before yesterday's work.

The Prowling Forer — With brows knit in agonizing thought, hands locked behind his back, he stalks endlessly around the office as if in search of one single answer to all the firm's problems. His box coat at nightfall: 20 trips to the water cooler, 7 to the men's room.

The Dubious Lover — This married Romeo, holding a business letter in his hand as a prop, goes from stenographer to stenographer, whispering, "Next year I'll take you to Havana, but right now how about a weekend in Philadelphia."

But if one of the girls really took him up on his proposition, he'd melt away faster than the abominable snowman.

The Harried Doctor — He rolls up his sleeves and buries himself up to his armpits in a pile of important papers on his desk.

He keeps a wary eye, however, so that no one can peek over his shoulders and see that the papers consist of his personal bills, his household budget, his state and federal income tax returns, and a small pamphlet entitled, "Ten Easy Ways To Pay Off A Home Mortgage."

The Lonely Heart — Believing that two can act better than one, he goes over to the other fellow's desk and asks him nonsense questions such as, "Do you think the light in here is ruining our eyes?" or "If you could retire right now, where would you want to live?"

THE DULL COWBIRD — This witless pest doesn't have enough originality to invent his own methods of shirking work, so he imitates the others. But he does it so poorly that he endangers the whole office, and everyone has a desire to poison him.

The Daredevil — Figuring that all life is merely a bold bluff, this wily gambler does no work at all. But after sitting for two hours with both feet on his desk, he strolls into the boss's office at 11 a. m., and says cheerfully, "All clear, chief, what can I do for you now?"

Naturally the best actor wins. Nine out of 10 times The Daredevil will become boss — if he isn't fired first.

WASHINGTON — Three new whooping cranes were born the other day, but they arrived too late to take part in this year's civil rights whoopibuster. They will not be able to qualify as U. S. Senators for two reasons: (1) Their physical age is too young; (2) they are aliens.

The whoopers, who would be naturalists for the whoopla now going on in the Senate, were born in Ottawa, which makes them Canadians. Even if Congress passed a special relief bill they couldn't be naturalized in time to join our whooping.

Whooping cranes are the world's rarest birds, and I often wish I could say the same for some of our lawmakers. There is still another way you can tell them apart. The filibusterings of the newborn whoopers are brand new, but those of the Senators are as old as parliamentary debate itself.

THE SENATE Library has just compiled a history of the filibuster. It records that Julius Caesar staged the first recorded filibuster. Alone of the Roman Senate, he was bitterly opposed to a measure to condemn and execute the Catiline conspirators. Caesar began what started out as an argument against conviction, and quickly developed into a full-fledged filibuster.

After some time, the Roman guard entered the chamber with loud threats against Caesar's life, began thrusting at him with their swords, until his friends, fearing for his life, covered him with their togas and ushered him from the Senate. Apparently a senatorial toga was harder to pierce in those days.

But later, Caesar was dosed with his own bad medicine. He tried to push through a farm bill—Ezzeling Tullius Benson—and Cato the younger started to filibuster against it.

Outraged by the same trick he had originated, Caesar ordered the sergeant at arms — an anonymous predecessor of Joe Duke — to throw Cato from the chamber.

When the officer did so, the entire Senate left the chamber with Cato as a demonstration of their disapproval of this arbitrary conduct.

Different nations have had different words for time-scaling debate. We borrowed our word "filibuster" from the English, who derived it from "filibusters," a name given to West Indian pirates who sailed in small vessels called "filibotes," or "fly boats."

That's why today we find the same filibusters in the same filibote.

OUR FILIBUSTER began in the Continental Congress. There was a protracted filibuster during the fight to locate the Capitol. It was so long, windy, and uninteresting that Fisher Ames, Congressman-ancestor, referred to it as "this despicable grogshop contest." Ames may have been a teetotaler.

Thomas Jefferson sought to devise a means to curb filibustering. He wrote in his manual: "No one is to speak impudently, or beside the question, superfluously, or tediously."

If that rule were enforced, the Senate of this 85th Congress would be condemned to almost utter silence. Senator Morse couldn't call Senator Capehart "a tub of racist ignorance"; Senator Capehart couldn't tell Senator Kerr he should be ashamed of himself for saying that President Eisenhower has no brains; and no Senator could make a speech that went much beyond the opening words, "Mr. President."

Site Of Dream House Is Now Hole In Ground

DETROIT (AP)—Where his dream house once stood, truck driver John Korenic now has a hole in the ground.

He also has a mounting list of creditors.

The 35-year-old trucker's troubles started last month shortly after he borrowed $4,000 to buy a small white bungalow. After 15 years of marriage, he was happy at the thought of moving his wife and two children into a home of their own.

Before he moved, however, he decided to install a basement. He paid a contractor $600 down on the $2,550 job.

One day he and his wife Ann, 34, sat on the porch of their rented flat watching workmen put a basement under their bungalow across the alley. The house slipped its supporting jacks and crashed into the basement.

Next he received a note from the city informing him that his capsize bungalow constituted a hazard and would have to be removed. For $350 a wrecking crew hauled away Korenic's dream house, leaving only the basement excavation.

Then Korenic borrowed another $1,000 and bought a brick home, condemned for the route of a new expressway. For another $1,000 he contracted to have the house moved. He paid $500 for lifting utility wires on the route.

The moving date is next week, but now he has hit another snag. His lot is 30 feet wide. The building code requires a house to be at least three feet from the lot line. The house's blueprints show it is 25 feet wide.

"The ordinance is specific," he said dismally. "The house is 12 inches too wide."

After listening sympathetically to Korenic, the suburban Hamtramck City Council last night said it would consider waiving the restriction if the neighbors don't object.

Korenic said the neighbor on one side appeared "a little reluctant" and the other wants to consult an attorney before committing himself.

"This seems to be the house that Jack didn't build," he said.

W. Va. Pulp, Paper Declares Dividend

The board of directors of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at a meeting held in New York this week declared a regular quarterly dividend of $1.12 1/2 per share on the 4 1/2 per cent cumulative preferred stock.

This dividend is payable August 15 to stockholders of record at 15 p. m. August 2.

Woman's Ashes Buried With Her Pet Dog

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—The ashes of a Lansing woman will be divided and buried in two separate resting places—one a dog cemetery.

Miss Mary Ellen Blach, 92, a dedicated dog-lover and former rooming house operator who died Saturday, specified the burial arrangements in her will.

Her body will be cremated today. Half the ashes will be buried in the family plot at a Danville, Mich., cemetery and half interred with her pet dog in a Humane Society pet cemetery at Lansing.

She was an enthusiastic gardener, a baseball fan who could quote all the batting averages and a pet lover. She has no known family survivors.

City Registration Up For Referendum

Registration is picking up at City Hall in preparation for the August 13 tax limitation referendum.

Mrs. Ruth Mangus, city registration clerk said 36 new voters have been placed on the books this month.

The deadline for registration for the special election is August 5 at 5 p. m., when the books will be closed until after the referendum.

St. John's Officials At Liberal Education Session

PUGWASH, Nova Scotia (AP)—The president and dean of St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., are among 17 college officials participating here in a week-long conference on liberal education.

Richard D. Weigle, president of St. John's and chairman of the Assn. of America Colleges' Commission on Liberal Education, said the week of "reading, study and discussion will provide real refreshment of mind and spirit."

The conference is being held at the "Pineo Lodge," the ancestral home of industrialist Cyrus Eaton, chairman of the board of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. Eaton began the program last year, when 12 college presidents and their wives spent eight days here in a discussion of Plato's "Symposium."

After the presidents conclude their session Friday, a group of 16 deans from colleges throughout the United States will move in for a 10-day meeting.

Earlier this summer a group of international scientists met at Eaton's home to discuss the problems of the atomic age.

Shrimp

Nearly 2,000 species of shrimp exist. The young pass through 10 larval stages. Most adults apparently spawn only once and have a life span of one year.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Discovery that son is deviate stuns parents.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Recently my husband and I intercepted a letter that our teenage son had written to another boy, the gist of which was homosexual. Needless to say we were shocked, as we never had suspected such a thing.

It is true that we had worried about him a great deal, as he seemed to be always unhappy, of sullen and taciturn—with an inability to make friends of either girls or boys. However, he does have a few select boy friends—boys like himself who've never participated nor been interested in sports of any kind.

My husband never could understand him in this respect, as he was active in athletics in his own boyhood. We've encouraged Jake to take part in sports, but never forced him, and he has a decided aversion to that sort of thing. Music and art are his interests.

For Consultation With Specialist

After finding the letter, we consulted a psychiatrist immediately—who has seen our son twice, and called us in for further consultation. He says our son has definite feminine traits, instincts, etc., and that he hasn't made the transition from feminine to masculine, as is natural for boys at his age.

Like most parents, we don't understand this sexual maladjustment and don't know how to cope. We shall continue Jake's psychiatric treatment, of course; but also we want to help at home. Will you please suggest books we might read, in order to become more enlightened? Many thanks for any help you can give us.—C.F.

Book Of Hope For Deviates

DEAR C.F.: So far as I know, there isn't much reliable literature available, keyed to non-specialist understanding of the complex subject of homosexuality; its causes and chances of cure. But the mists of ignorance, prudery and misconception with which it has been surrounded are beginning to lift a little; and a time may be fast approaching when healing light will begin to break in upon this demoralized mix-up of the human personality. As an example, the widely known author and analyst Dr. Edmund Bergler produced in 1956 a book—"Homosexuality: Disease or Way of Life" (Hill & Wang)—that is a blunt examination, in specialist language, of the known facts on the subject. It includes a sharp presentation of his own conclusions, as to the inside reasons why some individuals go off the track of normal development, and mistake themselves for a third sex—either with a sense of shame, or with megalomaniac conceit, as the case may be.

It is a book of hope for the deviate who really wants to get straightened out. In fact, the specialist stresses the point that honest desire to be heterosexual—i.e., to attain psychological maturity—is nine-tenths of the battle. Because with this desire, the client is willing to trade infantile delusions for demonstrable truths, and arrive at a right adjustment to reality.

Kinsey Report Is Criticized

Dr. Bergler, as his audience knows, takes a dim view of the Kinsey reports on America's sex mores; and devotes a chapter of this book to the question: "Did Kinsey Help Homosexuals?" Dr. Bergler thinks not; he thinks the effect of the report (compiled without psychiatric insight) was to add a dangerous element of complacency to the homosexual's sick confusion.

As he says (page 298): "The homosexual's real enemy is not his perversion; but his ignorance of the possibility that he can be helped, plus his psychic masochism, which leads him to shut treatment out."

He also says: "Homosexuality may have been tragic in the past, before therapeutic psychiatric methods were worked out. But today the only tragedy is ignorance, and, sometimes, lack of funds for treatment. It is for this reason that outpatient departments dispensing psychiatric help without fee cannot be advocated strongly enough."

As reading matter, the book is rather heavy going, and very, very psychiatric in theory; but worth the effort, as an antidote to your intense worry, I think.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of "The Evening Times."

Middle-Aged Gal Keeps Learning

AMES, Ia., (INS)—Women have proved that it is possible to keep on learning and being useful from middle-age on, according to an expert.

Dr. Wilma Donahue of the Institute of Human Adjustment at the University of Michigan told a family life conference recently that women have "punctured the misconception that a person's ability to learn stops the minute children leave home to be on their own."

Dr. Donahue, addressing a meeting at Iowa State College, asserted: "The mental capacities of older people can be just as receptive as in younger years—if properly stimulated by a desire to keep on learning."

She cited industry findings on middle-aged women who have reentered the business world. She said:

"Not only have the women found that they can quickly pick up long unused skills, but they make fewer mistakes, are highly conscientious about their work and highly efficient."

Boysenberry Juice On Breakfast Menu

DAVIS, Calif. (INS)—Breakfast menus may be brightened soon with a new fruit beverage—Boysenberry juice.

A frozen juice concentrate is being developed in the food research laboratories at the University of California Davis campus.

And official tasters at the lab report the tangy, purple juice is a very tasty product. Sherman Leonard, head of the lab, says the juice is processed in much the same way frozen orange juice concentrate is handled. It is mixed with water for serving.

The U. C. technologists will continue to refine the process with hopes of placing the product before consumers at an early date.

Frederic March, Wife Win Variety Award

NEW YORK (INS)—Frederic March and his wife, Florence Eldridge, won Broadway's final "best" poll of the season, the one conducted by trade paper Variety among newspaper critics.

The couple were cited for their performances in "Long Day's Journey Into Night," Fernando Lamas of "Happy Hunting" and Judy Holliday of "Bells Are Ringing" won approval as top musical comedy performers. Jason Robards Jr. and Inga Swenson were chosen as the most promising new players of the season. Robards performs with the Marches, and Miss Swenson appeared in "The First Gentleman."

God's Word Cited In Conclave Talk

INDIANAPOLIS (INS)—"Jesus told men to believe big," the convention president told the opening session of the 118th Indiana State Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ.)

"Men of little minds, little souls, little hearts and little faith will never bring in the kingdom of God," he said. "Unless we take off with bigger dreams, we are never going any place."

"Believe big...to the uttermost part of the earth."

Rev. Mackereth, Family Feted

Members of Davis Methodist Church were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mackereth recently, for a lawn party given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Huffman and their family. Rev. Huffman is the new pastor.

Lawn games were played and group singing was accompanied by George Abbott and Lee Schryock.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and D. C. Gainer. A gift of cash and pound articles were presented the pastor.

No matter what members of Congress say on the floor of the House or Senate, they cannot be sued for libel.

Nutritionist Claims Liver 'Best' Meat

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (INS)—For a nutritious, inexpensive meal try liver.

This is the advice of Louise Hamilton, Pennsylvania State University nutritionist who says:

"Liver tops all meat in food value and is inexpensive, too."

Liver should be cooked at low temperature, she says. If it is from young animals use dry heat and if from older animals use moist heat. High quality beef and lamb liver can be cooked the same way as calf's liver, she adds.

Club Closes Until September

At a social meeting Tuesday evening of the Opti-Mrs. Club at the home of Mrs. Carl Winfield, Bedford Road, it was decided to cancel the August meeting.

Cards were played and prizes awarded. Mrs. Raymond Hinkle and Mrs. Frances Warnick were co-hostesses with Mrs. Winfield.

Others present were Mrs. Robert Collins, Mrs. Orville Swartley, Mrs. George Eyer, Mrs. Bernard Whitacre, Mrs. Harold Naughton, Mrs. Hugh Funkhauser, Mrs. George Fey, Mrs. Earl Nonnenmann, Mrs. Howard Fisher and Mrs. Carl.

The club will resume meetings September 18.

Lengthy Eclipse

Theoretically, it is possible for the sun to be hidden for as long as seven minutes 40 seconds in a total eclipse. It must occur when the sun is farthest from the earth and when the moon is closest to the earth.

Members of the Canadian Senate are appointed for life by the governor-general, advised by the prime minister.

Miss Green, Fiance Being Honored With Dinner, Party

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Green, 644 Gephart Drive, are entertaining this evening with a family dinner at their home honoring their daughter, Miss Dolores Jean Green, and her fiance, William Michael Dove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haden, of Frostburg.

The bride will be carried out in the floral centerpiece for the table and other appointments.

Tomorrow evening, Mr. and Mrs. Haden will be hosts at a rehearsal party at their home, honoring Miss Green and her fiance. They too will use the bride in the table and house decorations.

Guests will be members of the bride party, immediate families and out-of-town visitors.

Miss Green and Mr. Dove will be married Saturday at 10 a. m. in St. Michael's Catholic Church, Frostburg, with Rev. Regis Larkin officiating.

A reception, with the bride's parents hosts, will be held in the church hall from 1 until 5 p. m. Friends and relatives of the couple are welcome to attend.

Hearing Set On PE Right To Condemn

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — A Montgomery County Circuit Court hearing is set for Aug. 2 on Potomac Electric Power Company's right to condemn land in Maryland. The company is seeking the right to develop the Potomac River at Great Falls as a source of hydroelectric power. Company Attorney James H. Pugh said "we unqualifiedly do have the right of eminent domain if the company did have condemnation rights, they would apply on-ly to development of the Potomac River at Great Falls as a source of hydroelectric power." Among those seeking the hearing are Ward A. Fulton of Beallsville and Mrs. Bettie Birkett.

CONTRAST — Pretty Kusuma Goonellilcke, a secretary in Colombo, illustrates progress of women in Ceylon as she drives her motor scooter to work. Traditionally garbed in her everyday sari, she presents a striking contrast between the old and the new. Road sign in background is in Sinhalese and English. Both languages are widely used in Ceylon.

Fashion Models Prefer Gardens

CHICAGO — (INS) — Even fashion models need to exercise to keep their figures trim and they don't like it any more than most women. Ask Patricia Hular, one of Chicago's top models, where she goes for her figure and she'll tell you "in a garden."

A trim 121-pound brunette, Patricia took to gardening because she has a healthy appetite and "a misplaced pound shows up like a ton."

Gardening is "painless" exercise to her. She explained: "I tried setting aside a half-hour a day to touch my toes and do knee bends, but I just didn't have the patience to keep at it. 'Out in the garden, I do the equivalent of the exercise but never notice it.'"

The first well-known newspaper comic strip was printed in 1894.

14 Divorces Granted

Decrees in 14 divorce cases have been issued recently in Allegany County Circuit Court.

George W. Shook obtained a divorce from Essie Shook. Elvera Adeline Gallen was granted a divorce from John Vogel Gallen. Dora C. Ruppert received a divorce from Ernest P. Ruppert. Hannah S. King obtained a divorce from Henry A. King.

James Clarence Owens Sr. was granted a divorce from Clara Elizabeth Owens. Katherine E. Babst was awarded a divorce from Robert Babst and custody of their two minor children. John W. Logsdon obtained a divorce from Rosalie A. Logsdon and she was granted custody of their minor child. Wilda R. Spera was granted a divorce from Joseph A. Spera and custody of their two minor children.

Doris G. Gallin obtained a divorce from Cecil Gallin and custody of their infant son. James Lee Shaw received a divorce from Esther Eunice Shaw and he was granted custody of their infant daughter. John Hamilton Newhouse obtained a divorce from Helen Marie Newhouse. Emerson Figard was awarded a divorce from Eva Figard.

Mary Lee Wilfong obtained a partial divorce from Lloyd F. Wilfong. Willie Paige Shank was granted a partial divorce from James Harold Shank.

Churches Unite In Harlem Area

NEW YORK (AP) — In what Protestant spokesmen called a pioneering example in the ecumenical movement for the nation, 15 Harlem churches have formed a neighborhood association.

The cooperating churches officially call themselves the Heart of Harlem Neighborhood Church Assn. of the Protestant Council of the City of New York.

The united resources of the churches will be used for evangelism, Christian social relations and education and adult and youth work.

The Protestant Council, of which the Harlem unit becomes the first official neighborhood church association, is the agency for cooperative work of the 1,700 Protestant churches of 31 denominations in New York City.

Tax Commission Calls In Frederick Assessors

BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Tax Commission today directed Frederick County assessors to report by August 26 whether there are inequitable assessments in the county.

The Frederick County officials came to Baltimore at the commission's direction to explain recent published reports of low tax assessments in the county.

Following an hour-long closed meeting, Commission chairman Cornelius P. Munday said:

"We have required the Frederick County assessors to submit a report to us by Aug. 26 showing whether there are any other comparable inequitable assessments in the county.

"If there are, they are to be corrected forthwith."

Munday said the commission also had ordered the Frederick County assessors to improve their system of keeping assessment records.

Albert Ward, executive secretary of the commission, explained that their records were inadequate and have been obsolete. We are insisting on adequate records."

Munday said the record-keeping was not entirely the fault of the county officials.

"The record cards they have been using were obsolete," he said.

A new system, using record cards which will show why any changes were made in the assessment of a piece of property and the name of the assessor who made them, will be adopted beginning next Jan. 1, he said.

County officials attending the meeting were A. Lamar Barick, State supervisor of assessments for Frederick County, Ernest C. Speaks, the county's Republican assessor, and William Burgee, the Democratic assessor.

"The tax commission began an investigation of Frederick County assessing practices after Robert L. Shipley resigned as Democratic assessor. Shipley said he quit because of 'inequitable practices' in the assessing of property for tax purposes."

ACCUSED OF CHILD'S DEATH—Mrs. Howard Ott was brought to Douglas County, Ore., courthouse yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Gail Carnine for arraignment on a charge of second-degree murder. She was granted a one-week delay to enter a plea and released on $5,000 bail. Mrs. Ott is charged with causing the death of 22-month-old Wendy Kay, by striking the child and causing it to strangle. The child was brought to this country from Korea by Harry Holt, Creswell, Ore., farmer. Mrs. Ott and her husband recently were cleared of abusing other children. (AP Photofax)

Public Works Unit Passes Auditing Bill

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The seven members of the Board of Public Works have authorized a way to pay $7,500 in auditing bills for Institutions Commissioner Theodore F. Dorman.

The board, made up of the state's seven elected administrative officials, went along with an opinion submitted by Atty. Gen. W. W. Barron. He wrote that Dorman was wrong in hiring outside auditors, but that Tax Commissioner John A. Field Jr. had authority to take him off the hook.

Dorman hired auditors to go over the books of seven state institutions shortly after he was appointed president of the old Board of Control. The board administered 22 state institutions until it went out of existence on June 30.

Dorman told the Board of Public Works at a meeting early this month that Field, whose department has authority to audit the books of all state agencies, said his men were too busy. Field, he quoted, suggested going outside the state government for auditors.

Barron, in his opinion, wrote: "We are of the opinion that Mr. Dorman, president of the Board of Control, was not authorized by law to enter into the contracts of employment with the individuals in question, they not being regular officers or employees of the board. Thus, we have no alternative but to conclude that the . . . contracts are void."

The attorney general went on to say, however, that the tax commissioner could pay the bills for Dorman.

Arctic Plants Could Be Huge In Other Places

Arctic plants tend to remain small because of lack of soil and water, and the fierce intensity of the northern sun, says the National Geographic Magazine.

The rose-red fireweed, for instance, may be a four-foot giant in the Temperate Zone, a four-inch pygmy in the Arctic. Its name comes, not from its color, but from its habit of growing in fire-scorched earth.

Homesite In Japan Can Be Lengthy Site

TOKYO (INS)—Angry citizen Jiro Seki demanded that city officials give back the $5,600 he had paid, sight unseen, for "eight acres of public land" on which he intended to build a home.

Seki found out later he had become the owner of a narrow dirt path 13 miles long.

Spring Warning

Spring months are cooler than the corresponding months of autumn because it takes hot summer sun to warm the earth's crust and the seas and icy wilderness of the Far North.

King of Hobos Fears His Breed Vanishing In United States

HARRISON, Ark. — (INS) — Appointed one. For the past 15 years Cole has been elected "king" at the National Hobo Convention at Britt, Iowa.

"Mulligan stew is the best food in the world."

The man, known to his intimate friends as "King Cole," elaborated further on his life:

"I have everything I want. Freedom, no troubles, plenty of leisure time and friends the nation over."

"In fact," he went on, "you might say my home is where I lay my head — anywhere, United States of America."

The armchair philosopher doing the talking was Samuel H. Cole, the 67-year-old King of Hobos. Cole was pinned down in Harrison long enough to talk about his life and of hobos in general.

The "king" is currently making a tour of the state capitals to obtain all 48 of the official state seals. He was awarded an "Arkansas traveler" certificate while in the state. This he placed with his title as an honorary Kentucky Colonel and an honorary member of the Lions International.

Cole says he has been on the move for the past years. He left the wanderlust trail after his parents separated when he was only 14, and he hasn't stopped yet.

Contrary to popular belief, the title of king is not just a self-appointed one. For the past 15 years Cole has been elected "king" at the National Hobo Convention at Britt, Iowa.

As the "king" talked about the convention a look of sadness came across his face. He believes that hobos may be a vanishing race and backs up his theory by pointing out that each year the number of true hobos attending the convention is smaller.

Cole blames this on "curious tourists who come to see that famous mulligan stew — the best food in the world — and drive away the hobos."

"I don't know what is going to happen. Why, a few years from try."

Instead of waiting for the chance to go as so many people do, I am on my way as soon as the bottom strikes me," he said.

Cole has one advantage in his favor, however. He doesn't have to take time to pack because he carries his "home" with him.

"It was too much like work."

Even though he hasn't worked much, he has crossed the country more times than he cares to remember. This in itself is a very tiring feat for less experienced travelers. The "king" says he was never one to let food in the world — and drive away the hobos.

has hitchhiked up and down, back and forth across the country.

Home" to the nation's number one hobo is a small suitcase and a bulging briefcase.

Lord Beresford May Resign Post

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret's current boy friend, Lord Patrick Beresford, has been quoted as saying he intends to resign his army commission shortly.

The 23-year-old polo playing nobleman is a lieutenant in the elite Royal Horse Guards regiment. The War Office announced only Monday he was being sent to Cyprus on a military assignment.

The Daily Mail quoted Beresford as saying: "I intend to resign before the end of the year, so it is nonsense to say I will be going out to Cyprus."

There were rumors last week that engagement of Beresford and the 26-year-old princess was impending. Court circles were silent on the rumors.

The Daily Mail said Beresford's decision "means there will be no break in his friendship with Princess Margaret."

The War Office described Beresford's transfer to Cyprus as routine. But some newspapers hinted it was arranged to save Buckingham Palace embarrassment over the romance rumors.

Veteran TWA Pilot Loses License In CAB Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has voted to revoke on safety grounds the flying license of a veteran Trans World Airlines pilot, Capt. Leonard J. Specht.

The CAB said Specht, 47, will lose his airline transport pilot rating "for violations of the civil air regulations while in command of a scheduled airline flight."

Specht testified at a hearing in Kansas City last March that he took a plane from an assigned altitude of 14,000 feet to 18,000 feet without permission when he encountered severe icing conditions. The flight, with 35 passengers, was from New York to St. Louis yesterday in Allegany County last Jan. 29.

Specht said he repeatedly asked for permission to change altitude and when he did not receive it, declared an emergency and lifted his plane 4,000 feet. He said he "had to do something and do it then."

The Civil Aeronautics Administration brought the complaint against Specht, saying his action jeopardized the safety of a Capital Airlines plane flying at the 18,000-foot level in the same area.

ROMAN MEAL BREAD

Thirsty RF-84F Thunderflash (bottom) approaches its sister ship, an F-84F Thunderstreak, which is acting as aerial tanker.

Tanker lowers set of "flying gas pipes" with funnel at end, as the speedy Thunderflash closes in for contact moment.

Contact! Fuel from tanker-fighter (top) is transferred to receiver while both planes hurtle through space at high speed.

450 GALLONS, PLEASE — The gas-station-in-the-sky system being used by the U. S. Air Force turns fighters into tankers and back again in a matter of minutes. A plane like the F-84F Thunderstreak, that carries a bomb on one mission, can be a tanker the next. Designed for faster-than-sound aircraft, the system makes refueling possible at high speeds and at altitudes of up to 30,000 feet. In six to 15 minutes (depending on the amount of gas) the operation is completed and the receiving plane continues on its mission. The low-cost system, said to be able to increase range of fighters "up to 70 per cent" depending on the type of mission, can also be used with slower jets. It was developed for U.S.A.F. by Republic Aviation Corporation.

Foster Parent Program Backed By Entertainers

NEW YORK (INS) — Actors and actresses have hearts as big as their bank accounts, according to the Foster Parents' Plan. The Foster Parents' Plan celebrates its 20th anniversary this year, and the international children's relief organization records shows that Broadway and Hollywood stars have been among the group's top supporters. In 1937, When Foster Parents' Plan was started in order to help the Spanish refugee children, it was stars like Helen Hayes and Tallulah Bankhead who were among the first American to financially "adopt" these forlorn youngsters. Ethel Merman and Jimmy Durante and their cast of the 1939 hit, "Stars in Your Eyes" soon joined the plan while those traditional feudists Jack Benny and Fred Allen agreed on one point—both became Foster Parents.

As Plan grew to embrace the destitute children in England, France, Italy, Greece, Belgium, West Germany and South Korea, so the list of Hollywood Foster Parents grew, too. Mary Pickford "adopted" a Belgian orphan. Now she is Foster Parent to two Italian children. Gary Cooper has been a Foster Parent for over 10 years. His first child was Rafaela Gravina of Italy and now he is helping a tragic Ukrainian DP lad whose only home has been a dismal camp barracks.

Steve Allen, Plan's east coast 20th anniversary chairman, is Foster Parent to a handsome Italian lad while west coast chairman Art Linkletter, has a trio of foster kids. Bing Crosby's former Foster Child, who lives in a Korean orphanage, thanked him for his Christmas gift and asked for singing lessons. Brother Bob "adopted" a Greek girl. Eve Arden visited her "child" when she was in France, as did Bob Cummings, while Clifton Webb met his Foster Children when he was in Greece filming.

"Adoption" through Foster Parents' Plan is financial, not legal. The Foster Parent promises to contribute $15 monthly toward a particular child's support for at least one year.

Public Board Evolves Plural Executive Setup

MORGANTOWN (AP)—With all its faults—which are sometimes significant—the Board of Public Works has evolved into a fairly sound “plural executive” method for administering West Virginia’s state government.

The immediate needs: (1) Reduce the membership from seven to five, and (2) relieve it of some of the tedious chores that are beneath the dignity of a policy-making group at the executive level.

These, in sum, are findings of a critical analysis published this week by the Bureau for Government Research of West Virginia University. It was written by W. W. Kaempfer, research assistant for the bureau.

The most immediate and pressing need Kaempfer sees is the elimination of the state school superintendent and commissioner of agriculture from board membership and make their offices appointive, rather than elective.

At least one of these proposals is topical. The electorate will find on the ballot again next year a proposed constitutional amendment to make the school superintendent subject to appointment by the State Board of Education.

Such a proposal has been on the ballot before, without success. As a matter of fact, as Kaempfer points out, the voters have had ample opportunities to streamline the board with “short ballot” proposals or other single-executive plans. But they have been reluctant to change.

There has been no specific public agitation about the commissioner of agriculture but Kaempfer lumps the two offices together as “special interest” departments which have no place on the board and which never should have been elected in the first place.

The “special interest” references are explained in the author’s own words:

“...The superintendent has a unique position. He is an elected executive officer and member of the plural executive who is also head of the department which spends or distributes 66 per cent of the total budget.

“The superintendent cannot be expected to have the comparatively objective attitude of general government members; neither his profession or his governmental position would permit him. Pressure for increased state aid to schools impels him to make this his first consideration. One result has been occasional quarrels.

“Although the commissioner of agriculture also represents a clientele agency, he does not occupy a post as politically sensitive and organizationally confused as the superintendent. The commissioner does not always agree with his colleagues, but his differences are not important enough to be carried outside of the board and become public property.”

Kaempfer makes this conclusion:

“After 25 years of experience it seems at least doubtful that a powerful special interest should be represented on the Board of Public Works. The pressures which play on the special interest representative encourage disagreement with other members benefitting his clientele very little and hampering state government in general.”

Under acts of the 1937 Legislature, some streamlining already has been implemented at the statehouse. The three-member board of Control was abolished for a single executive agency, and several functions were integrated under a new office of Commissioner of Finance and Administration.

None of these changes, which presumably post-date Kaempfer’s research, would—in the opinion of statehouse sources—relieve the Board of Public Works of the trivial chores about which the auditor complains. For instance, only the board may assign offices to new agencies or permit one agency to move to another location.

The board’s most important job is budget making. On this point, Kaempfer says: “Citizens who do not have special interest representation can take comfort from the board only as, (1) they feel that many heads are always more democratic and less likely to be perverted than is one, and, (2) as they can identify and feel sympathetic with a particular board personality.”

Kaempfer notes the difficulty of the executive task each governor faces under West Virginia’s system of divided authority. He adds, however:

“Since plurality has been the rule in West Virginia, the burden is on those who desire a change to show that the Board of Public Works is a handicap to the governor and a real, rather than a hypothetical, drag on executive efficiency.”

Kaempfer offered a set of four alternatives, with his own ideas about their acceptability:

1-The board could be abolished, along with the elected constitutional officers. Very remote.

2-The board could be abolished, leaving the elective offices.

Mountain Climbers Charged $630 In Fees

WASHINGTON—Nepal charges mountain climbers an admission fee of $630 to assault 29,028-foot Mount Everest, the National Geographic Magazine says. Anyone attempting to scale 28,811-foot Dhaulagiri, the earth’s highest known un conquered peak, must pay the same; but lower peaks may be tackled for bargain prices.

FIRST LADY TRIES TANK—Mrs. Robert B. Meyner accompanied her husband, Gov. Meyner of New Jersey, on a tour of the N. J. National Guard in training at Camp Drus, N. Y. The governor and his wife visited the tank firing range for a first hand report on the two-week training period of the nearly 5,000 Jersey guardsmen. Mrs. Meyner found the passage to the interior of this tank “rather uncomfortable.” (AP Photofax)

Much Married Man Un-Mated

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—The New Judge Johnson invalidated the second marriage of Ira Lee Morris in court yesterday. He was their husband.

Grace Dorothy Newberry, 15, won an annulment. Amelia Annamae Newberry, 24, got a divorce.

The sisters told Judge Beryl Johnson the mixup started when Grace Dorothy and her mother came to Topeka to visit Amelia Annamae and her husband Ira Lee.

Grace Dorothy and Ira Lee sneaked away to Lawrence, Kan. July 13 and were married by a minister. Amelia Annamae objected when she found out about it. Grace Dorothy met the objection by pointing out her sister and Ira Lee hadn’t had a legal ceremony.

Morris is a 40-year-old lathe operator at Forbes Air Force Base on the outskirts of Topeka and has been married six times. He sat in the back of the courtroom and didn’t say a word.

Cellophane first was produced in the town of Towawanda, N. Y.

Consolidated Electronics net this year should be 10-15 per cent above the $3.12 in 1955.

With operations broadly diversified and earnings showing every indication of having been established on a higher plane, Chesapeake & Ohio Railway shares, appear conservatively valued.

Keep your eye on the chemical groups, advises Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane. Earnings should grow as new facilities come on stream and the effect of current expansion is translated into sales and net.

West Indies sugar may distribute proceeds from sale of its Dominican properties to shareholders. Total of $30,000,000 involved.

Market comment — Kenneth

Ward of Hayden Stone & Co:

"Some further consolidation of the recent advance or perhaps a further minor setback to around 503-510 in the (Dow Jones) industrial and 150 for (D-J) railroads, may take place before the averages are again in position to reach new high ground."

Gardening Easy With Right Tools

EAST LANSING, Mich. (INS) — A Michigan State University horticulture specialist says careful selection of garden tools can be the first step toward easier gardening.

A hoe, rake and shovel are needed for gardening, according to Fred Widmeyer. A small wheelbarrow is also useful.

Widmeyer says the handles of hand tools should be unpainted because paint can hurt hands and can hide imperfect grain.

Rakes should have good heads firmly attached to handles. Shovels also should have strong shanks and should not be used for prying.

A flat file should be used to sharpen hoes.

$16,000 Collected In Taxes In July

About $16,000 in county and state real estate and personal property taxes has been collected so far in July in the office of Tax Collector J. Wallace Close at the Court House.

A considerable spurt will be necessary in the final week of July if the usual $100,000 is to be collected during the month. A four per cent discount on the county taxes is allowed for July payments. In August the discount is three per cent.

Close's office reported record June collections when $2,050,000 was received some 13.5 per cent more than the $1,775,000 collected in June 1956. In view of that $275,000 increase it is doubtful that the July collections will match the $100,000 of last year.

Riches Wouldn't Stop American Men From Working

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—(INS)—A "While some would switch to a windfall inheritance gave emotional economy . . . anchors different kinds of work, more them the chance. Their most fre going into business for them- selves." Chameleons, best known for their changes in color, have trick eyes. One eye can look up while the other pivots down. Eyelids have a peephole that they can shift in all directions.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—(INS)—A national-wide survey has revealed four out of five American men would continue working "even if they inherited enough money to live comfortably without a job." University of Michigan researchers Nancy C. Morse and Robert S. Weiss of the Study Center, said: "Those in less interesting and less 'prestigious' jobs are more likely to say they'd change jobs."

Reasons for wanting to continue working were: "Keeping occupied and interested . . . keeping healthy . . . I enjoy my work . . . It's an important element in my life."

Mill Gets New Bleach Equipment

Installation Costs $2,340,000 In Luke Plant Expansion

Construction of a new bleaching installation at an estimated cost of $2,340,000 is underway at the Luke Mill of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company as part of the mill's $50,000,000 expansion program.

The installation consists of a chlorine dioxide generating plant and a chlorine dioxide bleaching stage, both aimed at production of considerably higher brightness pulp than is produced now.

Presently the mill uses calcium hypochloride, caustic soda and chlorine to bleach pulp used in the manufacture of paper, and the generating plant will supply chlorine dioxide as an additional bleaching agent, the industry's newest, to the system.

Generators Cost $340,000

The generating plant, to cost an estimated $340,000, will have a daily capacity of five tons of chlorine dioxide, enough to supply the needs of an expanded mill in 1961.

Equipment for the generating plant includes reactors, pumps, tanks, absorber, refrigerating plant and piping as well as a control laboratory and instrumentation.

Tonnage To Hit 350

The bleaching stage, to cost about $2,000,000, calls for the installation of a hypo washer, a chlorine dioxide washer, a down-flow retention tower, mixers, pumps and other equipment, including stock storage.

This system, together with the existing three continuous bleaching stages, will enable the plant to bleach continuously 350 to 355 tons of high brightness pulp a day.

Design is being done by the company's New York engineering office and site preparation and construction by Tidewater-Hazwood, contractor for the mill's expansion program.

Civitan Club Aids Friends Aware Clubs

The Cumberland Civitan Club has presented large cash donations to the Friends Aware of Cumberland and Westport.

Charles E. Kolb, president, said that a $400 donation has been made to the local organization, while $200 has been given to the Westport group.

Kolb pointed out that the two groups have been cooperating with the Allegany County Board of Education in providing additional funds and facilities to supplement the educational needs for retarded and handicapped children of this area.

Charles F. Statler, president of the Cumberland Friends Aware, said it is gratifying to his organization to know that the Civitans are supporting the mentally retarded children in the area.

Mrs. Robert Ford, president of the Westport Club, said the funds received would be used to provide additional classroom aids and continued transportation for the handicapped children of Westport and the Georges Creek areas.

Kolb said today that aiding the mentally retarded and handicapped child is now an international project of Civitan clubs throughout the United States and Canada. He noted that the local club is proud to be playing a part in this program.

Local Man Enlists In Army Unit Here

George E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Jones, 232 Oldtown Road, has enlisted in the Army at the local recruiting station, according to Master Sgt. W. C. Hartley, recruiter.

Jones signed up for three years with the Transportation Corps. He has two years previous Army service and has been sent to Fort Jackson, S. C., for training.

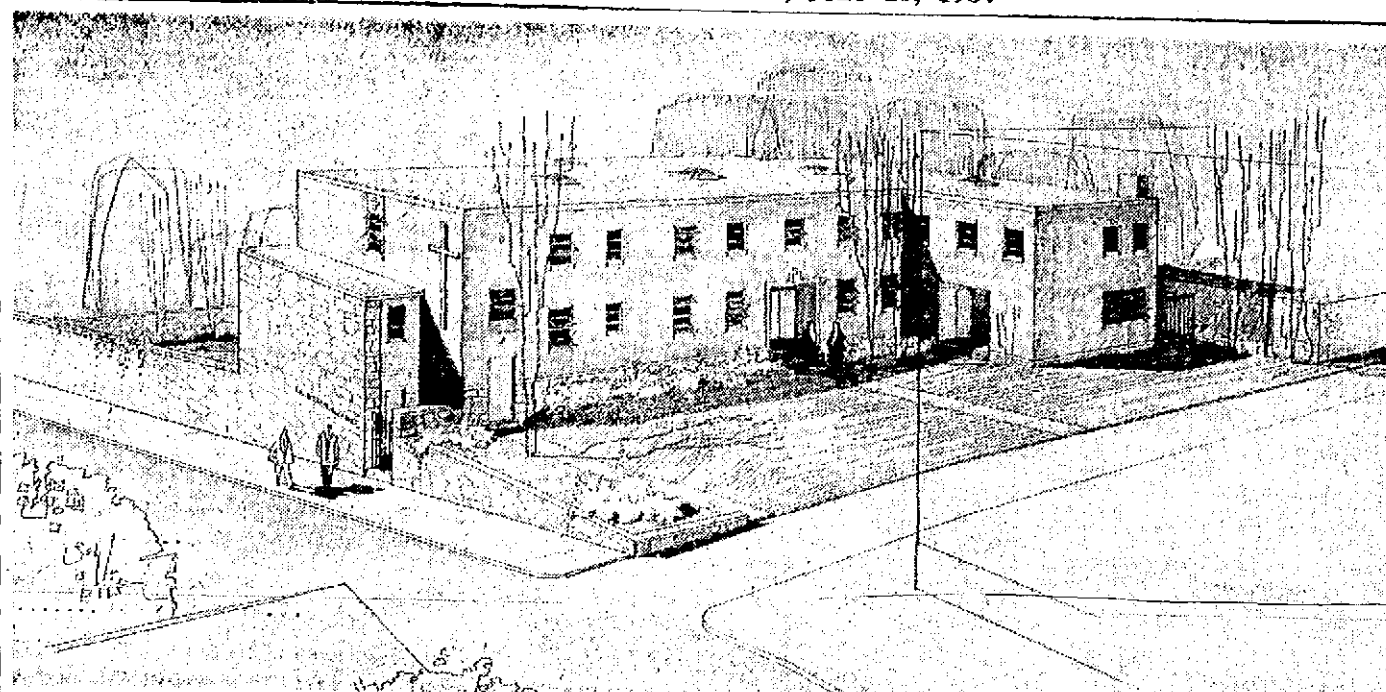

Boy Sets Off Dynamite Cap; Blows Hole In Sill

A nine-year-old West Side boy had a narrow escape last night after tinkering around with a loaded dynamite cap at his home.

The youngster, Bobby Fair, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fair, 106 Luteman Road, escaped injury, but considerable property damage was caused by the explosion.

City Police this morning said Fair and several other youths were playing ball on the Allegany High School field where construction work is being done. After the game, the Fair boy and another youngster found the dynamite cap.

Fair took the cap to his bedroom, and around 9 p.m., decided to see if it would explode. The boy set the cap, pointed outward, on his window sill and inserted the two lead wires into a receptacle.

ARTIST'S DRAWING OF NEW CONVENT—The SS. Peter and Paul Monastery, its garden and wall, and the 108-year-old SS. Peter and Paul Church, overlooking Cumberland from a West Side hill, have long been a local landmark. And the parish is adding to the scenery with the construction of a new convent for the Ursuline Sisters who teach in SS. Peter and Paul School and Ursuline Academy. It is being built by Henry Dressman and Allen Sell contracting firms with a stone foundation and brick superstructure. The convent is located in the garden, adjacent to the old convent.

Rain-Making Machine For State Posed

Resolution To Be Put Before Legion Convention Today

BALTIMORE (AP) — A proposal that the Maryland American Legion buy a rain-making machine for use during droughts was to be laid before Legion convention delegates today.

Some 1,100 delegates are in Baltimore for the State Legion's 35th annual convention.

The four-day meeting winds up Sunday with election of officers. On tap today is the annual Legion drum and bugle corps contest. The annual parade is scheduled for tomorrow night.

The rain-making resolution would authorize the use of Legion funds for purchase of a cloud-seeding machine to be used during droughts in Maryland.

The proposed purchase of a silver iodide rain generator was to be debated at the convention's first business session today.

Last night at the convention's opening session two candidates for State Commander, John Matthews, Baltimore businessman, and John Sloan, a Cumberland native practicing law in Baltimore, were called to the speakers stand where they were presented with miniature boxing gloves, compliments of the State Nurses Post.

The proposal to study the rain-making question came as a result of a report by S. Harold Phillips, a Dorchester County farmer who heads the Legion's agriculture and conservation committee. He noted that Eastern Shore crops, especially corn, have been hard hit by drought.

Legion delegates also will debate the question of trials of American servicemen in civil courts of nations with which the United States has mutual defense treaties.

Church Gets Guest Pastor

Rev. Dr. Robert H. Parker, a native of this city, will return to Cumberland Sunday to conduct services at St. Mark's United Church of Christ, Park and Harrison streets, at 11 a. m.

Rev. Dr. Parker was graduated from Allegany High School, Class of 1920, and from American University, and the Drew Theological Seminary. He holds an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Western Maryland College.

For the past 14 years he has been the minister of the Northwood-Appled Methodist Church in Baltimore. Prior to this assignment he served three years at the Union Grove Circuit of the Methodist Church and four years at the Methodist Church in Parkton, Md.

Rev. Dr. Parker will conduct services in place of Rev. Carl Clapp, pastor, who is on vacation.

Farm Queen Event Today

Six Girls Vie For Allegany County Title

The two latest entrants in the Allegany County Farm Queen contest to be held today at 8 p. m. at the Union Grove camp grounds on Mason Road are Lois Miltenberger, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miltenberger, Ridgeley, and Garland Shyrook, 16, daughter of Edward Shyrook, Town Creek.

Other contestants previously announced are Barbara Plummer, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Breighner, Williams Road; Viva Ann Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Ryan, Frostburg; Nancy Vandevort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norval Vandevort, Danville; Ada May Kinser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lunda Kinser, Oldtown. Senior At Ursuline

Miss Miltenberger will be a senior at Ursuline Academy next school term and is a member of the Cumberland 4-H Club. She took part in the style revue and cherry pie baking contest recently. She has exhibited handiwork at the Cumberland Fair and at school is a member of the basketball team. Last year she was vice president of the Junior Class.

Miss Shyrook will be a junior at Flintstone High School in September and she belongs to the school 4-H Club. She is historian of the Future Homemakers of America at the school and is a member of the glee club, orchestra and was treasurer of her class in her sophomore year.

Helps On Farm

Miss Ryan, a sophomore at Beall High School, is taking a general course. She is a member of the Eckhart Methodist Church and attends Sunday school there. Her hobbies are dancing, cooking and sewing and she helps with the general farm work.

Miss Vandevort is a member of the Danville 4-H Club and won the cherry pie demonstration last year and repeated her victory this year. Miss Vandevort was style revue winner last year and placed third this year and will be one of the three Allegany County representatives at Club Week later this summer. She will be a senior at Bruce High in Westport this year.

Miss Plummer, a junior at Fort Hill High School, is taking a commercial course. She is a member of the Mt. Herman Methodist Church and takes part in Youth Fellowship activities. At Fort Hill she is active in the Student Council and home economics.

Mrs. Chambers is "MC" Miss Kinser is a sophomore at Oldtown High School where she is a member of the Girls 4-H Club. She is a member of Mt. Olive Church and its junior choir.

Mrs. Marjorie Chambers will be master of ceremonies for the contest. The annual farmers picnic will start with a covered dish supper at 6:30 p. m. Miss Ramona Elbin, Houston, Texas, a former resident, will sing several numbers. Mrs. Atlee Armour, president of the Maryland Associated Farm Women, will speak. Mrs. Edgar Matthews is general chairman of the event.

Kelly-Union Wage Talks Progressing

Negotiations on wages between Local 26, United Rubber Workers and the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company were continuing today and progress is reported.

James Stein, union president said the union and company were a "little apart yet." The wage talks began July 8 and the recent announcement that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and URWA have agreed on a 15-cent wage package has set a pattern in the industry.

Man Wanted Here Nabbed In Colorado

A Westernport man will be returned from Denver, Colo., to face charges here on breaking and entering a Barton service station.

Sheriff Edward Muir and a special deputy will leave Cumberland tomorrow by automobile to pick up Roy E. Dayton, 29, of Westernport.

Dayton was taken into custody Monday by an FBI agent on a state warrant charging him with breaking and entering the establishment.

Sheriff Muir said he hopes to reach Denver on Sunday, and expects to start back to Cumberland on Monday.

The case against Dayton was developed by Sgt. William F. Baker, criminal investigator for the Maryland State Police, Tfc. Harry Bosley and Tfc. Milton C. Hart.

Sgt. Baker obtained the warrant charging him with the Barton breaking and entering, but said he is also wanted for breaking and entering in Frostburg and near the Allegany-Garrett county line on U. S. Route 40.

Board Accepts Bid

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (AP) — Prince Georges County Commissioners yesterday accepted a bid of $1,728,800 for a three-story addition to the county General Hospital. The low bid was by Victor R. Beachamp, Inc. of Washington.

Cement Sale Restricted In District

Two Major Firms Here Report Supply Becomes Limited

For the first time in the two-month national cement plant strike, the local supplies of cement have been restricted by the two major sources.

Today, limitations on the sale of ready-mix concrete and cement were put into effect by the Cumberland Cement and Supply Company and Super Concrete Company.

The effect of the nationwide strike of 16,000 members of the United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Worker's Union, affecting 75 of the country's 140 cement plants, becomes more evident each serious they reported.

Cumberland Cement and Supply Company and Super Concrete Company usually receive their supplies from the Alpha-Portland Cement Company's Mannheim, W. Va., plant near Howlesburg.

So do the contractors on the big Cumberland-Ridgeley flood control project where much concrete is being poured.

Picture Dark

And a statement from the company's main office at Easton, Pa., today reports that no negotiation sessions have been set up with the union, and the picture is dark at this time as far as a settlement is concerned.

The Mannheim plant employs 200 men and supplies much of the cement for the tri-state territory.

The strike there has caused the big flood control contractors and the local suppliers to smaller contractors to seek other sources.

Demand Tremendous

They have been successful, but the demands on these plants not on strike have been tremendous, and it is not possible for them to keep up with all orders.

One local supplier said the situation would not be so bad if there wasn't so much hoarding.

"People get excited and start buying more than they need, thereby creating an undue hardship," he added.

Both local suppliers reported they no longer would be able to issue normal supplies.

Delay At First

An official of the E. J. Albrecht Company, contractor on channeling Willis Creek from Valley Street to Market Street reported there was a delay in the firm's work at the start of the strike, but cement was received from another source other than the Mannheim plant.

The cement has to be shipped from a more distant point, but there is enough to carry the pouring through this week.

The strike has had little effect so far on road work in Maryland's Sixth District, covering Allegany, Garrett, Washington and counties.

G. Bates Chaires, district engineer, said that if the strike continues a few more days every project in the area will feel the consequences of the cement shortage.

Some will not be hurt too much, he said, as the work consists of grading and surfacing with blacktop. Others, however, will where there is construction of concrete headwalls, culverts and bridges.

A check of local building contractors reported that the shortage has not affected them so far. The cement strike has had no effect so far on the big expansion project at the Luke Mill of the

Playfield Begins Queen Balloting

Columbia Street Playground will begin balloting today for the selection of a Teenage Queen and Tiny Tot Queen, with the voting scheduled to be held all week.

The Teenage Club met yesterday and a costume show was held later. A movie will be shown at dusk.

Today's program will feature the selection of a basketball team which will represent the playground in the annual city-wide tournament.

The playground will participate in the inter city picnic tomorrow at Constitution Park.

GUEST MINISTER—Rev. Dr. Robert H. Parker, Baltimore, a native of Cumberland, will conduct services at St. Mark's United Church of Christ Sunday at 11 a. m.

Commandment Violated By Theatre Goer

Seeing is believing, but someone apparently didn't believe what he saw during the showing of "The Ten Commandments" at the Strand Theatre.

Seems that while the movie was being shown here last week someone walked off with $13.80 in cash and a number of theatre tickets.

Police theorize the man must have left the movie before it was over. The climax was when the Lord appeared before Moses on Mt. Sinai and wrote the Ten Commandments on stone with a ball of fire.

At any rate, police say, the man must have missed the Seventh Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Steal."

Parking Ban Released By State Group

Mayor Roy W. Eves this morning was informed that the Maryland State Roads Commission yesterday approved an agreement that permits the removal of a parking ban on the easterly side of Bedford Street between Decatur and Marietta streets.

The mayor was informed by telephone that the signed contract was in the mail, and arrival of the pact is expected tomorrow. The Traffic Bureau of the City Police Department will be instructed to remove the signs following arrival of the contact, Mayor Eves said.

The parking ban was originally made at the insistence of the Federal Bureau of Roads, with the explanation that federal law required the ban because of the width of the street between Decatur and Marietta.

Following an appeal by residents of the area, who pointed out the lack of garages and parking facilities, negotiations were begun to permit parking. The federal bureau recently approved the city's request, and the agreement was presented for final action of the State Roads Commission.

Two Escape From Morgan County Jail

Two brothers escaped from the Morgan County (W.Va.) Jail and are still at large, according to Sheriff William Clark.

Clark said today that James Shirley, 22, and Calvin Shirley, 20, escaped the lockup Tuesday by forcing open a door. The sheriff noted that the same door has been forced by escapees in the past.

State Police in Maryland, West Virginia and Virginia have been conducting a fruitless search for the pair.

James Shirley is described as being six feet tall with black wavy hair. Calvin Shirley is about five feet, nine inches and has blonde hair.

The brothers were being held in the jail awaiting action of the grand jury on charges of breaking and entering.

Veteran Of 53 Years B&O Service Retires

A familiar figure to passengers who have ridden the Washingtonian and his successor, the eastbound Speedliner, made his last run as a conductor for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, yesterday afternoon.

Retiring after 53 years of train service is Daniel W. "Webb" Keyser of Harpers Ferry.

On hand to bid him farewell was W. E. DuVall, Oldtown Road, who worked with him as a brakeman when he was a conductor in freight service. DuVall, who yesterday observed his 30th anniversary as a B&O trainman, presented him with an engraved cigarette lighter and railroad mementos.

Keyser began his employment with the railroad on November 3, 1905, as a brakeman on the Cumberland Division.

He was promoted to freight conductor on October 23, 1910, and to passenger conductor on August 15, 1939. During his freight service he worked trains between Brunswick and Keyser.

His most recent passenger turns have been the westbound No. 29 express from Baltimore to Cumberland, and No. 22, the eastbound Speedliner, from here to Baltimore.

Keyser is a member of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Masonic order.

Federal Agent — Bribers Get Prison Terms

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two men convicted of bribing a federal alcohol tax agent have been sentenced to terms in federal prison.

Henry McDaniels, 43-year-old convicted numbers operator from Washington, was sentenced to six years and fined $9,050 by Judge R. W. Dorsey Watkins. A two-year term was imposed on Charles S. Burney, 30, of Chapel Oaks, Md., a former police chief at Glenarden, Prince Georges County.

The two men were convicted yesterday of bribing Raymond F. Acker, a revenue agent. A jury deliberated 22 minutes before returning its verdict at the close of a two-day trial.

According to testimony, Burney acted as a go-between in offering and paying $1,350 to Acker. The agent said he took the money under instructions of Treasury Department inspectors who recorded details of the offer on tape.

"The tape recording was admitted into evidence. Owen Burke Young, another agent, said he recorded the conversation between Burney and Acker while Burney was giving the agent the money."

It was testified that McDaniels hoped Acker would recommend probation on a pending case in which McDaniels was charged with possessing a 475-ballon moonshine whiskey still.

McDaniels and Thomas W. Daniels, 38, of Washington, were convicted on charges of operating the still and Daniels was given an 18-month term in federal prison.

"Burney, a Negro, testified he was only doing his 'duty' in co-operating with federal agents. He said he thought McDaniels might be able to give Acker information on illegal whiskey activities in Charles County."

Compensation Fund Actuary Named

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A commercial instructor at West Virginia University has been appointed as actuary for the State Workmen's Compensation Fund.

George S. Sharp, Compensation Commissioner, announced that Royce J. Walts of Morgantown will fill a vacancy open since Thomas P. Meadows resigned on July 1.

Barnacles are not found on fresh water, only in salt water.

W. Va. Slates Korean Bonus In 60 Days

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia's Korean veterans will begin receiving their bonus checks in about two months, Veterans Affairs Director C. S. Collier Jr. predicted today.

Collier based his estimate on a special session of the Legislature which convenes Aug. 5. Gov. Unshar has called the session to consider three changes in laws passed by the 1957 Legislature to pay the bonus. The governor said the changes are needed to sell 18½ million dollars worth of bonds for the program.

The veterans affairs director said he began working out details for paying the bonus even before the voters approved a constitutional amendment on the question last November.

Until he is certain that the bond issue will be sold, Collier said, he cannot issue bonus applications. Meanwhile, thousands of requests are pouring into the offices set up to mail out the checks.

Beall Against Bill Amendment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The roll-call vote by which the Senate yesterday adopted 52-36 the Anderson-Aiken amendment stripping the administration's civil rights bill of all enforcement authority except protection of voting rights included the following:

For (D-De): Butler (R-Md); Williams (R-De).

Against the amendment: Beall (R-Md).

Dr. Theo. O. Fisher spoke on the subject "Believe Big." He is minister of the Northwest Christian Church here.

Surviving are three sons, Dale Bluebaugh, Baltimore and John F. and Virgil Bluebaugh, Vale Summit; two daughters, Dolores Bluebaugh and Mrs. Betty J. Switzer, both of Vale Summit; a brother, Jacob Bluebaugh, Fairmont, and seven grandchildren.

He was a retired bakery worker and was a veteran of World War I.

The body will be at the Hafer Funeral Home after 7 p. m. today.

Christopher Crawford

MOSCOW — Christopher C. Crawford, 64, died yesterday in Potomac Valley Hospital, Keyser, where he had been a patient two weeks.

Born at Mt. Savage, he was a son of the late Nathan and Jane (Winebrenner) Crawford. He was a member of the Assembly of God Church.

He is survived by his widow, Rose (Green) Crawford; two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Bills and Mrs. Della Bardo, both of Itchester, N. Y.; five sons, Lester and Raymond, both of Barton; Christopher Jr., Midland; Roy, Baltimore, and David Crawford, Philadelphia, Pa.; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde and Mrs. Rose Hyde, both of Moscow, and Mrs. Stella Reel, Cascade, W. Va.; two brothers, Elmer, Terra Alta, W. Va., and Hilary Crawford, Ohio, and 13 grandchildren.

The body will be taken to the Assembly of God Church in Lonaconing Saturday at noon. Services will be conducted there at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. E. C. Hunt, pastor. Burial will be in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

The body is at the Eichhorn Funeral Home, Lonaconing.

Local Hospitals Gain Approval Of JCAH Board

Cumberland's two hospitals have been approved by the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals.

Sister Celeste, administrator of Sacred Heart Hospital, said the institution was approved following an evaluation of the hospital May 17 by Dr. Warren G. Atwood, field representative of the group.

John A. Moberly, superintendent of Memorial Hospital, said today he has also been notified of a three-year approval of the hospital.

The rating is the highest possible accreditation Moberly said.

The commission is composed of the American College of Physicians, the American College of Surgeons, the American Hospital Association, the American Medical Association and the Canadian Medical Association.

Cement Sale

West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Negotiations between union workers and cement plants in the Lehigh Valley continue today with expressions of optimism by federal mediation officials.

Walter Moser, federal mediator and conciliation commissioner, says he is hopeful of a settlement in the strike by the end of the week. The walkout began May 11 in the Lehigh Valley and soon spread to various parts of the nation tying up millions of dollars in construction contracts.

A negotiating session takes place today between the Allentown Portland Cement Co., at Conshohocken, Pa., and the union, the United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers Union. Another will follow tomorrow with the Hercules Cement Co., Bath, Pa., and a third on Monday with the Medusa Portland Cement Co. at York, Pa.

C. of C. Official Plans To Resign

COLONIAL BEACH, Va. — members had told him they planned to quit for similar reasons. John T. Murphy, vice president of the Colonial Beach Chamber of Commerce, says he will resign in protest against Maryland's licensing of gambling and drinking spots on the Potomac River. What's more, Murphy claimed yesterday that 10 more chamber and sale of liquor by the drink are legal. Maryland owns the Potomac to the Virginia shore, so Charles County is able to control the licenses involved. Socrates was a sculptor as well as a philosopher in his early years.

Boys' 4-H Clubs Urged To Prepare Fair Booths

Assistant County Agent James B. Arnold has asked all boys' 4-H local leaders in Allegany County to notify him by August 1 if their clubs will enter educational booth exhibits in the 40th annual Cumberland Fair starting August 19. These exhibits should consist of educational booths on improved farm practices, conservation, safety or other related subjects and are to be made only by the club members. The dimensions for each booth will be five and one-half feet in width and five feet in depth. Each local leader is requested to notify Arnold of his club's booth subject on or before August 1. Exhibits should be natural, using soil, sod or grass and live material where practical. This is not intended to discourage the use of miniature livestock, farm implements, buildings, fences or substitute crops. The club winning the first prize will receive $25. The second prize will be $15, the third $10 and all others $5 each.

What To Wear

Off On Vacation, Man? Here's Clothing Check

By DICK KLEINER

NEW YORK—Let's have a big cheer for that grandest of all institutions, the vacation. It's just about that time, just about the moment when you can pack up your troubles and enjoy yourself. But you'll enjoy yourself more if you don't have any what-jackets, should-I-wear clothing problems. Here, prepared with the cooperation of the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, is a list of vacation clothing hints:

• Travel: No matter what kind of a vacation you take, you'll have to go somewhere to get there. For traveling, best bet is a sports jacket and a pair of contrasting slacks. Wear a shirt that doubles as sports shirt or conventional shirt, with a tie you can do if the occasion demands.

• Resort: If yours is a resort vacation, take along a dark suit—gray, brown or navy blue. It should be lightweight—silk, silk blend, tropical worsted, or natural-synthetic blend. You'll need some shirts—for two weeks away, for cotton shirts or two wash-and-wears should suffice. A pair of gray or white slacks makes the dark jacket do double duty. And, of course, a sufficient supply of pajamas, underwear, socks, handkerchiefs, ties.

• Beach: If you're planning to spend some time swimming and/or lazing on the beach, one or two cabana sets plus an extra pair of trunks are a must. Don't forget beach sandals. The cabana set tops—one, at any rate—should be lined, with terry cloth or something similar.

• Fishing: A fishing trip requires two extra pairs of trousers, perhaps in chino or, if the climate demands it, a warmer material. Rubber-soled shoes and a cap with a sun visor help.

• Golf: Take along four extra pairs of slacks, six knit or fabric shirts, six pairs of hose, a couple of pairs of golf shoes, a cap, sweater and a rainproof jacket.

• Formal: Perhaps there's a formal evening or two on your vacation agenda. If so, take along a dinner jacket of black or midnight blue, with matching trousers or, even better for summertime wear, a white jacket with the dark trousers. Matching tie along a raincoat, a warm sweater, some slacks or shorts for lounging (you could get a charley horse in your putting leg and some moccasins or leisure shoes. And don't forget your return ticket, sucker.

Emergencies: The best laid plans, etc. It might come up rain or cold, so better bring along a raincoat, a warm sweater, some slacks or shorts for lounging (you could get a charley horse in your putting leg and some moccasins or leisure shoes. And don't forget your return ticket, sucker.

Talking about vacations brings up, automatically, swim wear. There isn't too much new this year, but here are a couple of odds and ends for your shopping trip.

Van Heusen has what they call the Double Dipper—reversible trunks. One side is, for example, a large plaid and the reverse a check pattern. McGregor's Visa Versa is just about the same idea.

For a real splashy appearance, give a thought to Jantzen's Gentleman Jim, a reincarnation of the knee-length swimsuit of the '90s. In this version, the bottoms have horizontal stripes, the matching vest has diagonal ones. You're sure to be noticed, anyhow.

Another worthy contender is Van Heusen's Kangaroo—it's a waterproof container, about the size of a tobacco pouch, that contains a regular pair of trunks, in many styles and colors. It's ideal if you've a space problem in traveling.

Rare Gift Declined—Twentieth-century Spain ranks the Alhambra, 14th-century fortress-palace in Granada, as one of its rarest national treasures. Yet England's Duke of Wellington once declined the Alhambra as a gift, considering it impractical, mal evening or two on your vacation agenda. If so, take along a dinner jacket of black or midnight blue, with matching trousers or, even better for summertime wear, a white jacket with the dark trousers. Matching tie along a raincoat, a warm sweater, some slacks or shorts for lounging (you could get a charley horse in your putting leg and some moccasins or leisure shoes. And don't forget your return ticket, sucker.

RESCUED FROM CAVEIN—Dino Tempesti, 42-year-old excavation worker, jokes with rescuers as he was pulled free of a cavein which buried him up to his neck in debris 12 feet below a Detroit street yesterday. Rescuers dug frantically for 30 minutes before freeing Tempesti, who was helping relocate steam lines beneath the downtown street when the sides of the excavation caved in. (AP Photofax)

No U.S. Weapons Said In Rebellion

WASHINGTON (AP)—A State Department spokesman has denied that U. S.-made weapons or U. S. oil interests were involved in a Middle East rebellion which Britain has agreed to combat.

Department press officer Lincoln White was questioned at a news conference about the situation in the sultanate of Muscat and Oman along the Persian Gulf coast of the Arabian Peninsula.

White spoke scathingly of British newspapers to which he attributed reports that U. S. oil interests were rivals against the British in the area, and that U. S. weapons were being supplied the rebels.

"We can belabor this until it is bloody and gory on the floor," White declared. "But (such an accusation) is just hogwash."

White said the State Department had no evidence—and he spelled out the word, "N. O."—that any American arms were going into the area.

Furthermore, he said, any idea that there was an oil rivalry between U. S. and British interests was out of the question.

He said the Iraq Petroleum Co. holds the concession for exploration in Muscat and Oman. This company is composed of two American firms (Standard of New Jersey and Sococo), one British, one Dutch and one French.

White was asked also whether Saudi Arabia was supporting the rebels.

He replied that he had no such information.

All-Fruit Beverages For A Party

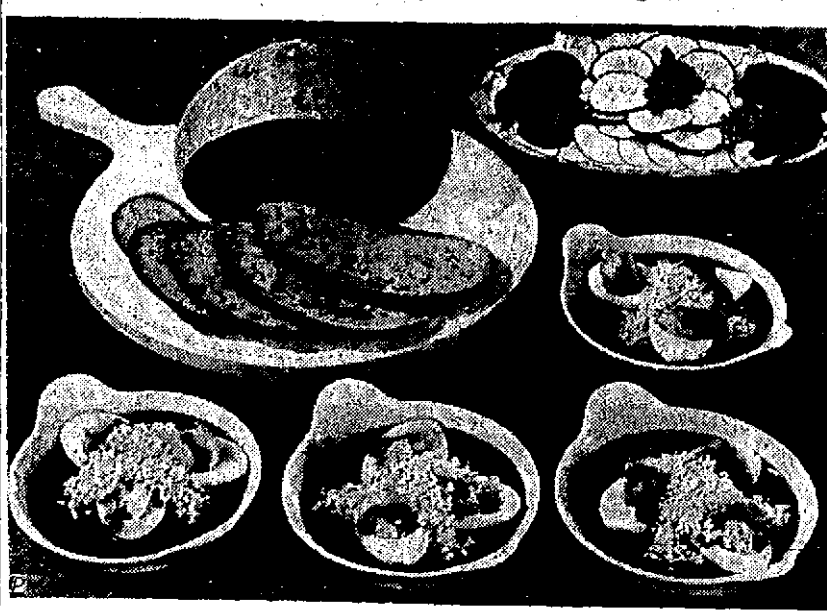

When it's time for relaxation, the ingredients are well chilled. It's time for long, cooling drinks. In the warm season ahead you will have many opportunities to serve refreshers to the family and to guests. Bottled carbonated beverages play an important part in summer entertaining, so it is well to have a variety of flavors and well to have a variety of sizes for chilling in your refrigerator. This will take care of the quick pick-up and the party drinks you make for several people.

Summer Delight

Those party drinks can be so good — bubbly and sparkling, with a subtle blending of flavors. Here's one, nice for an after-noon social gathering, and no salmon steaks for a summer trouble to make. Just be sure that supper.

Marinate sliced tomatoes and cucumbers in a mixture of vinegar, sugar and minced parsley or dill; serve with chilled cooked salmon steaks for a summer trouble to make. Just be sure that supper.

Stage A Summer Pantry Raid

QUICK AND CONVENIENT casseroles take the fuss and bother out of summer meal preparation.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

Even though fresh foods are abundant in summer, there come those mealtimes in every cook's life when it's easy and convenient to concoct a main dish from the pantry shelf. At one of those times you might like to run up these individual casseroles, using canned tuna and tomato sauce plus ever-present eggs. Here's the recipe:

Tuna Stuffed Egg Casserole

Ingredients: 6 hard-cooked eggs, 1 can (16½ ounces) chunk-style tuna (drained), 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce, 1 teaspoon onion salt.

Method: Cut eggs in half lengthwise; remove egg yolks. Mix tuna, green pepper, mayonnaise and Worcestershire sauce. Fill egg whites with tuna mixture. Stir together the tomato sauce and onion salt; spoon into 4 greased individual casseroles or shirred egg dishes. Arrange stuffed egg whites in tomato sauce. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes, or until thoroughly heated. Remove from oven; sieve egg yolks; sprinkle over eggs and tomato sauce; serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Note: If you have parsley on hand, you may mince some of it and sprinkle it over the sieved egg yolks.

Leeks And Limas Hard To Beat

Large dry limas, salt pork and leeks (a member of the onion family, which can be substituted if leeks are unavailable) are a natural flavor combination. And with a little seasoning of wine and thyme, this vegetable dish of "Leeks and Limas" is hard to beat.

Leeks And Limas

¾ pound salt pork
6 sliced leeks
3 cups cooked large dry limas
¼ cup red wine
½ teaspoon thyme
Cut salt pork into cubes and fry until crisp. Add leeks and limas, and continue cooking until leeks are limp.
Stir in wine and thyme, and pour mixture into 1½-quart casserole. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes.
Serves 4 to 5.
*About 1½ cups before cooking.

Broiling Steaks, Chops

When using a moderate broiling temperature, steaks, chops and patties need only to be turned once during the cooking. When broiling, timing is important and should be watched closely to insure the best results.

Crisp rounds of unpeeled red apple are delicious with a cheese spread. But be sure to dip the apple slices in lemon juice so they'll stay an inviting creamy color.

Porch Snack

Cucumber Sandwiches
Date Nut Loaf with Cream Cheese Iced Tea

Date Nut Loaf
Ingredients: 2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup firmly packed dark brown sugar, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons coarsely grated orange rind, ½ cup boiling water, ½ cup orange juice, 1 egg, 1 package (about 6 ounces) pitted dates (finely cut), ½ cup broken walnut meats.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Stir in the brown sugar. (Force brown sugar through a fine strainer if lumpy.) Stir butter, orange rind and boiling water together in mixing bowl until butter melts; add orange juice. With rotary beater (hand or electric) beat egg until thick. Add dry ingredients and beaten egg to other mixture; mix only until dry ingredients are moistened; fold in walnuts. Turn into buttered loaf pan (about 9 by 5 by 2½ inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Turn out on rack to cool. Loaf may be sliced a few hours after baking; but for very thin slices leave overnight in tightly covered container at room temperature.

Blueberry Pies Always Please

The huckleberry, blueberry, in syrup. Drain the juice from huckleberry and cranberry constitute the blueberries and, if necessary, add enough water to make 1 cup of liquid. Mix 2 tablespoons of cornstarch into 3 tablespoons of sugar and ¼ teaspoon salt and combine with the liquid. Cook over low heat until thickened and clear, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 tablespoon butter to the above and fold in the berries. Fill baked 8-inch pie shell with blueberry mixture. Top with meringue made of 3 egg whites and 6 tablespoons of sugar, beaten until it forms peaks. Let bake for 15 to 20 minutes at 325 degrees Fahrenheit, or until meringue is done and lightly browned.

For 8-Inch Pie
To make one 8-inch pie: Purrring is done and lightly browned.

Fruit Salad Beverage

POPPYSEED NOODLES

Ingredients: 1 package (8 ounces) medium-wide egg noodles, 3 quarts boiling water, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 2 teaspoons poppyseed, salt, pepper.

Method: Add noodles slowly to boiling water to which 1 table-spoon salt has been added. Boil, uncovered, until just tender. Drain in a colander. Re-heat in a skillet with butter; sprinkle with poppyseed and salt and pepper to taste. Toss and reheat. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

NOTE: 8 ounces of the medium-wide egg noodles will measure 6 cups; after cooking you will have about the same measure.

Roasting Time

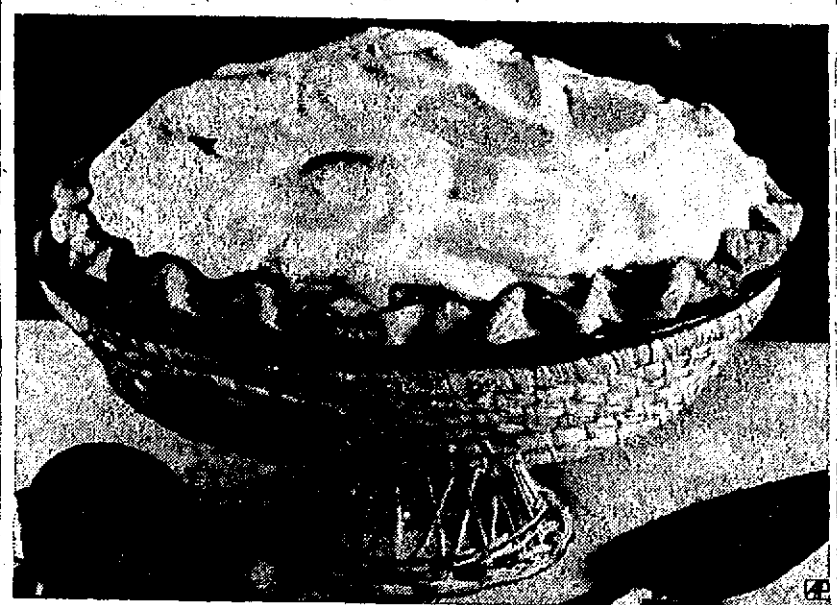

Boned and rolled roasts have become increasingly popular with the American homemaker the last few years. When cooking any type of boned or rolled roast, remember that the roasts require approximately 10 more minutes per pound more cooking time than roasts which have not been boned.

Outdoor Cookery

Outdoor cookery has attracted many an amateur chef in recent years. When broiling steaks, chops or patties over a grill during an open air meal, make sure the flames of the fire have died down. Cook the meat over glowing coals.

Mozzarella cheese is now available in many grocery markets. Try this Italian way with it: rub a slice of crusty bread with a clove of garlic; add a slice of Mozzarella and an anchovy fillet and broil until the cheese melts.

Real Cool Suggestion: Lime Pie

LIME SOUFFLE PIE—Light and airy like a summer breeze.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Fresh limes, with their exotic and refreshing flavor, give this pie real distinction. Prepare your flakiest pastry for a baked shell and have it ready for the supreme moment when you add the filling.

This is a dream of a dessert—high and puffy, light and airy. Our family and friends find it so easy to eat! Serve it when company's coming because although it is not expensive, it's stirring constantly, until thickened. Cover and cool. Just before serving, beat egg whites until foamy; add cream of tartar and beat until peaks stand straight up when beater is slowly withdrawn. Gradually beat in 1/2 cup sugar; continue beating, if necessary, until very stiff. Fold into lime custard mixture. Turn into prepared pie shell. Bake in 24 cup sugar gradually, then a moderate (375 degrees) oven for 15 minutes so filling will set and top swirls will be touched with over very hot (not boiling) water.

Lime Souffle Pie

Ingredients: 4 eggs (separated), 1/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon grated lime rind, 1/4 cup lime juice, 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/2 cup sugar, one 9-inch baked flaky pie shell.

Method: Beat egg yolks until thick and pale colored; beat in 1/4 cup sugar gradually, then a moderate (375 degrees) oven for 15 minutes so filling will set and top swirls will be touched with over very hot (not boiling) water.

Herb Gravy Served With Lamb Chops

Out-door activities during the summer seem to attract some of the time which would normally be spent in the kitchen. Light, quick-to-serve meals rate high on the agenda of menu plans during this time.

But for a delightful change, Reba Staggs, well versed in the field of meat selection, care, and cookery, suggests this tempting Lamb Shoulder Chop dish which is accented with a tasty Herb Gravy.

Lamb shoulder chops are a less-demanded lamb cut and therefore are economical. Being tender, these chops may be off drippings. Add sage, thyme, and cook slowly about 1 hour or until meat is tender. Thicken cooking liquid for gravy, if desired. Yield: 6 servings.

Lamb Chop—Herb Gravy

6 lamb shoulder chops, cut to 1 inch thick

1/4 cup enriched flour

1 1/2 teaspoons salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper

3 teaspoons lard or drippings

1/2 teaspoon sage

1/2 teaspoon thyme

1/2 cup tomato juice

Mashed Baked Squash

Bake acorn squash, then scoop out the pulp and mash with salt, pepper, butter or margarine. Add sugar to taste and reheat. If there's a little leftover pineapple in the refrigerator you'll find it is delicious added to the mashed squash.

New 'n Spicy!

TOMATO CUTLETS

Prepare mixture of 2 lightly beaten eggs, 2 tsp. Sterling Salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. curry powder, 1 tsp. water. Cut 4 tomatoes into 1/2-inch slices. Dip slices into mixture, then into fine cracker crumbs. Fry on flat, greased griddle (over barbecue or on the range) until golden brown on both sides. Serve hot. P.S. Any dish has extra zest, extra flavor richness when cooked and seasoned with Sterling Salt!

Variety Of Meats Put On Best Buy Food List

By The Associated Press

What's cooking for Sunday dinner? Housewives shopping around for bargains will find a somewhat wider variety of meats available this weekend. Here's a sampling: Tom turkeys, smoked hams, pork chops, beef liver.

For the small family, some chains are offering freshly-killed Bellville turkeys at promotional prices. The birds range from four to eight pounds in weight. About the best you can say about the choicer cuts of beef is that prices, for the time being anyway, have at least stopped going higher. But, market specialists say, there's still no downturn in sight. Although you'll find sirloin and porterhouse steaks offered at reduced prices here and there this week-end, the reductions are a purely promotional stunt—no real downward trend is indicated.

Egg prices, which headed skyward a week or so ago, are still climbing. Large white grade "A" eggs are up four cents a dozen in New York, Chicago and Detroit and two cents higher than last week in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Boston, Washington and other major cities. Hens lay fewer eggs when the weather is hot, and the eggs have a tendency to deteriorate faster.

To go along with the meat course, you'll find those summer favorites—tomatoes and corn—in plentiful supply in most parts of the country this week. Also classed as good buys are squash, cabbage, potatoes, carrots, onions, celery and hunched or topped beets. Also abundant and moderately priced are most citrus fruits. Best buys: Valencia oranges and nectarines from California, juice oranges and grapefruit from Florida. Cantaloupe prices, while relatively high, are down a little this week. In the coming weeks they should go still lower.

Cereals that are kept covered while cooking are more evenly moist than those that are not covered. A cover also prevents the cereal from forming a dry coating on top.

Stuffed Tomato Salad

Scald, peel and remove slice from stem ends of tomatoes. Scoop out centers, sprinkle with salt and arrange upside down on plate to drain. Fill with any fish, meat or vegetable salad. Serve on lettuce and garnish with mayonnaise.

Roll ready-to-bake biscuits so each may be wrapped around a cocktail-size frankfurter. Seal edges well and bake in a very hot oven. Serve the good little rolls with a chutney dip.

Wonderful for a fruit salad dressing: Mayonnaise thinned with both lemon and pineapple juice and given zest with a sweet brown prepared mustard.

Chest X-ray Unit Visits In Mineral

KEYSER — The annual chest X-ray program has begun in Mineral County under auspices of the County Health Department. The mobile unit was in Fort Ashby yesterday.

The unit will be stationed in three different sections of the county on its current visit. Today the unit will be at Piedmont on the City Lot from 1 to 5 p. m., and tomorrow from 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

Starting on Monday, the unit will be in Keyser, on Armstrong Street, in front of the Mineral County Court House, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. On Tuesday the unit will be at the same location from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

There is no charge for this service as it is offered free to all persons over the age of 17 years. Its primary purpose is to discover previously unknown cases of tuberculosis which may have gone unnoticed. It is recommended that every adult have a chest X-ray once a year.

This service is made available jointly by the West Virginia Department of Health, the Mineral County Health Department, and the Mineral County Tuberculosis Association.

NAMED PRINCESS — Miss Nancy Carol Meyer, (above) of Davis, has been selected as a princess in the court of Queen Silvia XXI for the 1957 Mountain State Forest Festival on October 3, 4 and 5. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Meyers, she is attending the Maryland Casualty Insurance School in Baltimore.

Westernport To Hire Two Policewomen

WESTERNPORT—The Mayor and Council last night voted to hire two uniformed policewomen on a part-time basis for the direction of traffic during the coming school term.

The policewomen will direct traffic between the hours of 8 and 9 a. m., for an hour during the noon recess time, and from 3 to 4 p. m. each school day. The pay rate was set at $1.05 an hour.

Police Commissioner Leo Herbert said the cost of uniforms would be $161.00 each. Qualifications for the posts were that applicants must be at least 25 years of age, be of good health and have good vision.

Applications for the two posts will be received at the city clerk's office up to Tuesday, August 6.

Considerable time was spent in reviewing the water situation pertaining to residents of the Oak View-Greene's Addition area.

Use of water in that area has been greatly curtailed, both because of lack of rain and the physical aspects of the location.

It was ordered that a six-inch check valve be installed on the present water line at Baughman Street on Oak View, and that preparations be made for the installation of a six-inch water line from Main Street and Oak View Drive, up the hill to Howard and Philips avenues, a distance of approximately 754 feet. Cost of the work was placed at around $1,000.

A surveyor will be employed to lay out the most advantageous placement of the line.

Mayor Okey E. Michael reported that the water in the Westernport Hill reservoir was approximately six feet below the crest of the basin, with about 11 feet of water in the storage pond.

The mayor also said the reservoir needed some repair work since there was at least one large crack through which water was seeping.

The installation of water meters as a conservation measure was discussed, especially in commercial places. The matter will be discussed further at the next council meeting.

A delegation from Greene's Addition appeared to inquire as to the plan for Westernport providing water to the Horse Rock Addition, development planned (Continued on Page 27)

Robber Made Church 'Jobs' His Specialty

SOMERSET — Burglarizing churches apparently became an incurable habit of a 26-year-old Indiana County man. He specialized in lawn mowers, cash, and other miscellaneous church items.

The law caught up with him several years ago and he served time in Western Penitentiary. It didn't help. A few months later he was back in the groove. Today he's in hot water again.

State police of the Somerset detail Friday arrested Wesley R. Cleveland, 26, of RD 1, Vintondale. Cleveland is wanted for burglarizing at least five Somerset County churches.

His church "jobs" aren't just limited to this county. Officers said he faces prosecution in connection with similar burglaries in Indiana and Westmoreland counties.

Cleveland "worked" in Somerset County about May and June. His first job paid off in cash — $240 from the Church of the Brethren in Rummel.

His hankering for lawn mowers became apparent during the next couple of jobs. Cleveland entered St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Church in Lincoln Township and made a haul of a rotary power mower, two gallons of paint and other miscellaneous articles.

The Church of the Brethren in Middlebrook Township was next on the burglar's list. He apparently was in need of gasoline to operate his mower. Cleveland stole a five gallon can of fuel oil, but he was foiled. The can contained kerosene.

He returned to the same building and this time carried off the church's lawn mower.

Cleveland's next move was a cash strike. He entered St. John's Baptist Church, Aurora, and pocketed $20 from two donation boxes.

The burglar apparently broke into other churches. State police recovered a mower which can't be linked with any of the five recorded burglaries.

Cleveland had been under police surveillance for several months. He was released from the penitentiary only six months ago where he served time for burglary.

Following a preliminary hearing here before Judge O. Wayne Hay on five charges of burglary, he was returned to Indiana County jail to face prosecution there.

Charges await him in Westmoreland and Somerset counties next.

Cleveland is formerly of Somerset County, near Jennerstown.

Cherry Grove Church Plans Anniversary

FROSTBURG — The Cherry Grove Church, east of Meadow Mountain on U.S. Route 40, will observe its 110th anniversary with a homecoming program on Sunday.

Rev. Bernard N. King, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, Bridgewater College, Va., will give the sermon at the 11 a. m. service. He began his ministry at Cherry Grove 27 years ago.

A basket dinner will be served on the grounds, after which a historical program will be presented at 2:30 p. m.

In addition to the Cherry Grove Church Choir, a vocal solo will be presented by Mrs. Connel Chaney, wife of Rev. Connel Chaney, Wiley Ford, and music will be featured by the Frostburg, Maple Grove and Grantsville, choirs.

Rev. Norman L. Harsh, Eglington, Va., director of the joint field program of First and Second West Virginia conferences and the Western Maryland Conference, will give speak in the afternoon.

Many former pastors and ministers will return to give brief messages, as well as greetings from ministers of neighboring churches.

All ministers present and delegations from other churches will be recognized, and a souvenir program presented to each.

The program will feature pictures of both the old and new church buildings, a picture of the 32 present at a Sunday morning service over 50 years ago, and a list of 134 former members "In Memoriam."

Fire Destroys Bedford Home

BEDFORD—Fire Tuesday destroyed a two-story log house on RD 3, Bedford.

The residence, believed to be more than 100 years old, was located about 15 miles south of here on Teaberry Road in Cumberland Valley Township.

Bedford firemen, who answered the alarm placed the loss at $4,000. No estimate of loss was made of the destroyed contents.

A television set and a washing machine were the only items saved.

Firemen said the house was owned by Edward Miller and was occupied by three adults. Cause of the blaze has not been determined.

Bruce Faculty Member Takes Pennsy Post

FAIRCHANCE, Pa. — Thomas T. Cook, of Bruce High School, Westernport, has been named to the faculty of Fairchance High School, according to W. Jesse Franks, supervising principal.

Cook was graduated from South Hills High School and received a bachelor of science degree in business education from West Virginia University in 1953. In addition to graduate courses in personnel management at the University of Maryland and business education at the University of Pittsburgh, the educator studied accounting in the Office Training School, Uniontown, and

The girls were given a demonstration on how to put out a fire in the home. Four members of the Frostburg Fire Department presented the demonstration — Joseph Dorst, Leslie Bevan, Donald Miller and John Starkey.

The firemen also explained why trash should only be burned outdoors between 4 p. m. and dusk. With a volunteer fire department, it was pointed out, many members are out of town or at work from early morning until late afternoon, and it is unlawful to burn trash during that period of the day, or after dark.

Dr. Martin Rothstein talked to the scouts on first aid. He explained how sprains, cuts, bruises and burns should be treated, and gave them a practical demonstration of each.

Yesterday was "Game Day," the late afternoon being spent playing badminton, volleyball, softball and dancing.

S. D. Helsley Named Bath Town Counsel

BERKELEY SPRINGS — The Town of Bath Council has named S. D. Helsley as town counsel. The appointment carries a retainer fee of $50 a year. He will take the place made vacant by resignation of C. S. Trump who served the town in that capacity for more than 20 years.

In other Council business Lacy McCoy was granted permission to build two rooms to his restaurant building. Cost is estimated at $800.

Clyde Fields was granted permission to erect another room at his home. Cost is estimated at $100.

M. P. Michael, owner of Hotel Washington, came before the Council to complain about the noise late at night made by teenagers congregating on street corners and in the park nearby. The matter was referred to Officer Williams.

Michael also asked if something could be done to lessen the noise from exhausts of trucks passing through the town, especially at night. A committee was named to take up this matter with Corporal Burke of the State Police.

"No Parking - at Any Time" signs were ordered erected in front of the pumping station of Mountain State Water Company.

The street committee was directed to go into the matter of having street signs repainted, ascertaining the cost.

Mayor William H. Hunter named the following standing committees:

Street — Robert Dunham, Clarence Spring and William Harrison.

Finance — Frank Willard, Lee Michael and Clarence Spring.

Ordinance — Michael, Willard and Harrison.

Cemetery — Dunham, Willard and Michael.

Grievance — Spring, Dunham and Willard.

Fire company — Harrison, Dunham and Spring.

Scouts Will Aid Library Move Books

FROSTBURG — The Scouts of Troop 42, Boy Scouts of America, sponsored by the First Methodist Church, will report at 7 p. m. today, in full uniform, to assist with the moving of over 5,000 volumes of the Frostburg Public Library to its new location.

Four adult leaders will accompany the scouts on this project. Two of the older members of the troop will be assigned to traffic control, to see that the boys get across the street safely with the books. Several boys will be assigned to the moving of tables and office equipment. The rest of the troop will transport books.

The Leaders Council consisting of the patrol and explorer post leaders and adult leaders met last night in the Scout room of the church, to plan the activities of the group for the July and August meetings. Included in the activities for that period were a flashlight nature hike; a father and son wienie roast; a swimming party; and a community "good turn." For the last item, it was decided to cut the grass and weeds and clean up the area adjoining the Lincoln School on Park Lane.

All of the meetings during the month of August will be under the direction of Daniel Folk, assistant scoutmaster of the troop, and the Explorer crew.

George Wilson Opens Business

FROSTBURG — George R. Wilson, son of Herman C. Wilson, 138 Hill Street, who has been employed with the American Standard Corporation, manufacturer of plumbing and heating supplies and equipment in Baltimore for several years, has returned home and opened a plumbing business.

Before going to Baltimore, Wilson was in the plumbing business with his brother in Frostburg. He will conduct his work from a shop located at 138 Hill Street, where he plans to carry a complete line of modern plumbing and heating fixtures and supplies.

Attend Course

FROSTBURG — Paul Haberlein, chief of the Frostburg Fire Department, and Joseph Durst Jr. and Charles Starkey, members of the department, left this morning to attend a fire school being held at the West Virginia University, Morgantown. The men will attend today's session and return this evening.

Pledge Days Set On Fund For Factory

FROSTBURG — "Back Up Your Pledge days" was set for August 19-20-21 at a citizens meeting held last evening at the city hall to discuss the possibility of securing funds to build a factory local to assist with the moving of over 5,000 volumes of the Frostburg Public Library to its new location.

The meeting, called a week ago by Mayor Joseph James, was attended by over 60 persons, mostly women.

Charles N. Hill, chairman of the Industrial Promotion Committee, presided and spoke briefly. Also speaking concerning the proposed factory were Maurice Millberg, associated with the Cumberland Undergarment Company; Mayor James, Howard Shuman, member of the committee, and Edward J. Ryan, city attorney.

William Preston, who promoted this session, presented plans to raise the $80,000 necessary to erect the plant. All those who made pledges in 1952 will be contacted by a group of 30 women who will check with 10 to 12 pledges in the three-day period in August. Other names have been added to the list for contact. Mayor James pointed out that the business men should not be asked to carry the entire load, that any family where both husband and wife work should be able to purchase several shares of stock which will be redeemed during the 20-year periods and will be a specified interest annually. He also said that many couples who work stand to gain as much from the factory as a business firm in increased property values and more security in their own jobs.

Ryan stated that bringing the factory to the community is like planning to buy a new automobile. The question being "Can I afford it?" The final answer is up to the people of the entire community, not just a few, he said.

Preston also pointed out in his talk that publicity is needed and the plan must be brought to the attention of every person in Frostburg. He is planning on asking business houses to donate to newspaper advertising and plans to have representatives present the plan at every public meeting of groups in Frostburg before August 19.

The group was composed of Nick Lupis, Richard Cline, Mrs. Carl Fortney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riley and Richard Skene. Cline also presented a request that the town scrape an unpaved section of street in that sector.

Mayor Michael informed council that the laying of a sewer line on Poundry Alley will begin the second week in August. He also stated that $10.50 had been collected last week from the sale of garbage cards, bringing the total for the year to $5,106. Parking meter receipts for the week were reported at $95.55.

An application for the position of part-time city clerk was made by Mrs. Norma Springer, but no action was taken on the matter. Ray L. Will, commissioner of public property, informed council that a building should be erected for the storage of pipe, and that he was ordered to have a sketch drawn up for presentation at the next meeting.

Bernard Davison requested permission to remove the retaining wall, sidewalk and curb in front of his home on Vine Street so that he might construct a garage. Permission was granted with the stipulation that the work be done at no cost to the town, and that at least one of the adjoining property owners would have similar work done.

Invitations were ordered sent to the mayors and councils of adjoining towns, to the Upper Potomac River Commission, Allegany County Board of Commissioners, State Health Department and Allegany County Health Department, inviting them to inspect the new town filtration plant on Sunday, August 4.

BABY CONTEST WINNERS — The winners of a baby contest held at Braddock Playground in Frostburg are shown following the presentation of prizes. From left to right, are Ritchie Hopkins, 4 to 6 years group, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hopkins; John Smith, 2 to 4 group, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith; Timothy Dye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dye, and Kathy Jean Wellings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wellings, both winners in the infant group; Karen Grieg, 2 to 4 group, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grieg, and Lynnie Fisher, 4 to 6 group, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher.

Quarter Tax Forms Must Be Completed

Every employer required to withhold income tax from wages, or who is liable for F.I.C.A. taxes, must make a quarterly return to the Director of Internal Revenue unless the wages are for agricultural labor, James E. Robertson, manager of the local office of the Social Security Administration, reminded today.

The report now due covers the April, May and June quarter of 1957.

It is important that every employer file a quarterly return completely and accurately because it provides the necessary wage information to enable the Social Security Administration to determine the benefits due employees and their families when the need arises.

A necessary part of the quarterly return is the listing of the employees and their social security numbers. A complete report also should list each employee, account number, and the amount of wages paid during the past quarter.

Incomplete and incorrect reporting of wage items by employers may have serious consequences for wage earners and their families, their employers, and Social Security.

Last wage credits may cause reduced old age and survivors' insurance benefits and in some cases may even result in no benefits being paid, said Mr. Robertson.

The social security office has a form to get a statement of a wage earners social security account which can be obtained by writing or phoning the local office at room 328 in the Post Office building.

Story Hour Sessions At Library Begin

WESTERNPORT — The tenth annual summer story telling hour for the children of the Tri-Towns opened yesterday afternoon at the Westernport Library.

It is directed by Mrs. Frances Dayton, president of the Westernport and Luke Civic Club which sponsors the Westernport Library. Nearly six attended.

Mrs. Dayton told the first installment of a serial story "Copper-wood Boats" by Marguerite de Angeli. It will be continued each week.

Plans were made for the sessions which will include the drawing of a child's name each week for a prize.

In order to encourage reading by the children and to stimulate circulation of library books, a large picture of a leopard without spots will be pinned upon the wall. For every three books taken from the library and read by a child, it may cover a spot with his name. The child reading the greatest number of books at the end of the period will receive a prize.

Programs each week will be varied by selected story tellers and will include motion songs and simple games.

Mrs. Paul McCoy, chairman of the library committee, will be in charge of the story hour next week. Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, is the librarian.

Heare Appointed Justice Of Peace

BERKELEY SPRINGS — Grace B. Heare has been appointed a justice of the peace for Bath District by the Morgan County Court. He has set up an office in the basement of the new addition to the Court House.

Since the death of C. C. Dyche, Sr., the county has had only one justice, — Frank Swain. Robert Everett was elected but decided not to serve.

Heare, former superintendent of the Berkeley Springs Sanatorium, was elected Town of Bath recorder at the municipal election in June.

He entered the Army in January of this year and received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

He was graduated from Maryland State Teachers College, Frostburg, in 1956.

Camp Meeting To Continue At Hyndman

HYNDMAN — The Gaddis-Moser evangelistic party which is conducting a camp meeting here, will continue through Sunday, August 4.

Meetings begin each evening at 8 o'clock, while the Sunday meetings will be conducted as follows: Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; Morning worship, 10:30 a. m.; afternoon, 2:30 p. m.; Evening, 7:30 p. m. Holy Communion will be observed on Sunday at the conclusion of the morning worship.

Members of the evangelistic team are Dr. Tilden H. Gaddis, preacher and cornetist; Mrs. Rachel Gaddis and Miss Elma Moser. The women present instrumental music on the vibraphone, chimes, accordion, saxophone, auto-harp, guitar, and mandolin, and also vocal selections.

They are members of the Methodist Church in the Indiana Conference. Their travels have taken them thrice around the world, ministering in 88 countries and 46 states. Churches of 54 denominations have welcomed them into their midst to conduct meetings.

This is the third time they have ministered at the Hyndman camp meeting.

Hyde Claims Reds 'Used' Girard Case

Sensational Probe Damaged Foreign Military Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde (R-Md.) said today "manipulators" of the Girard case were not motivated by humanitarian interests and have played into the hands of the Communists as well as the isolationists.

"The Communists and other leftist organizations are glorying in the opportunity of using our emotional concern as a means of defeating our foreign military aid programs and forcing withdrawal of our troops overseas.

"Isolationists too," Hyde said, "are using the case to further their own views. Both the extreme right and extreme left know that repeal of the Status of Forces Agreements would force us to withdraw our troops from foreign stations since our men would no longer be protected."

EPC William Girard of Ottawa, Ill., a soldier stationed in Japan, is accused in the death of a Japanese woman who was gathering scrap on a firing range. The Supreme Court upheld a Defense Department decision that Girard should be tried by the Japanese rather than by an Army court martial.

Hyde said there is something about the "manipulation of the Girard case that troubles me."

"What is behind it all?" the congressman asked in his weekly report to constituents. "I am convinced that the manipulators were not motivated by a humanitarian interest in the case itself, but saw in it a means of reaching another goal. Whatever the motive, the tragedy is that the excitement created by the Girard case has played into the hands of extreme right organizations and extreme left groups."

Anesthesia Setup Like Space Ship

HOUSTON, Tex. (INS)—Having an operation is like taking a trip into space for the young patient at a Houston hospital.

Doctors at the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute have rigged up a jet pilot's glass helmet and simulated radio microphone with anesthesia apparatus.

They say the method is smooth and effortless while the child is playfully flying his space ship. He is being gently put to sleep.

The headgear converted to induce primary anesthesia was bought in a toyshop. Rubber hose, substituted for the make-believe radio wires, was connected to the anesthesia unit and the sleep-producing drugs channelled through the "microphone."

Plane With German CAPs Loses Door

BALTIMORE (AP)—A C-123 Air Force transport plane bringing five East German Civil Air Patrol cadets to this country lost a door shortly before it landed here yesterday.

Where it fell, nobody knows. The Air Force said the door, approximately 7-by-5 feet and a foot thick, was seen by "apparently no one. At least it has not been found."

The pilot, Capt. Albert Saulnier of Ardmore Air Force Base, Okla., said the plane was just east of Friendship International Airport at 4,000 feet altitude "when we felt a strong gust of wind in the airframe."

The five teenage Germans, members of the Aero Club of Germany, are here for an 11-day visit as part of the CAP exchange program.

The Parkville Squadron of the CAP is host to the cadets who will stay in the homes of residents of the North Baltimore suburb.

A round of activities, including a tour of anti-aircraft facilities, Fairchild Aircraft plant in Hagerstown, the Naval Academy, flying with local cadets and social events have been scheduled for them.

The cadets are Michael Kunz, Horst Diemer, Dieter Panitski, Knut Teitler and Eckhard Trettle. They were accompanied by Capt. Harold West of the German Air Force and Albert Maier of the Aero Club of Germany.

Dietetics Expert Says Cheese Easy

URBANA, Ill. (INS)—Contrary to popular belief, cheese is actually easy to digest. Indigestion is caused when you eat too much cheese at one time or eat it with foods that are very rich in fat.

Harriet Barto, University of Illinois Dietetics instructor, said, for example, a mince meat pie and cheese dessert with a meal having a great deal of fat can cause indigestion.

Eating cheese is a good way of "coating milk," according to Miss Barto. She said one ounce of cheddar-type cheese has about the same amount of high-quality protein, calcium, riboflavin and vitamin A as one cup of milk.

Careless Driver Point System Backed

BALTIMORE (AP)—A point system which would penalize careless drivers for moving traffic violations apparently is going to be supported by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The department opposed the plan last winter when it came before the General Assembly and the measure failed to pass.

But yesterday, Del. Silver (D-Balto 5th), chairman of the Legislative Council's Motor Vehicles Committee, said the commissioner of motor vehicles will present a plan for a modified point system at the committee's Aug. 7 meeting.

The State Board of Education also reversed its previously stated position at the meeting and presented a proposal for offering driver training courses in public high schools.

School officials had argued against such a plan at the 1957 Legislature. But yesterday, Dr. David W. Zimmerman, assistant state superintendent of schools, proposed adding driver education to the curricula.

NEW FLYNN, OLD WAYS: Errol Flynn, who claims his days as a swashbuckler are over, can't resist a look at a pretty ankle on Manhattan's Fifth Avenue.

Flynn Says (Once More) He's Hanging Up Sword

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Errol Flynn, the Captain Blood, the Sea Hawk and the Robin Hood of a thousand cinema adventures, has announced that he's putting his period lights in mothballs and, if not beating his sword into a plowshare, at least hanging his rapier over the fireplace.

It's not, please understand, that at 48 a man is too old to cut a swathe singlehandedly through a gang of miscreants. It's just that Flynn is bored with leotards and epics and proposes to devote himself to acting, although not in sack suits.

"This," announces Flynn, interrupting himself to order a Bloody Mary (one part tomato juice, two parts Mary), "is the new Flynn. This is the serious Flynn."

Familiar Refrain

Flynn was reminded that just about a year ago, on his return to Hollywood after almost five years abroad, he was heralded then as the "new" Flynn. He overlooked the remainder and went on to explain that during a year off in Spain, sometime while reading Gibbon's "Rise and Fall," "David Copperfield" and the collected works of Anthony Trollope, he decided to put his swashbuckling days behind him and acquaint the public with the more cerebral side of his nature.

Right now, for goodness sake, the new serious Flynn is not only reading Guy de Maupassant for kicks, speaking filially and sentimentally about his mother, but has arranged to play Rochester in "Jane Eyre" on Broadway next season.

Those are not all the surprises it's Flynn in a familiar role.

NL Wonders Where 'Jackrabbit' Is In Baseball

Four Senior Loop Games Show Only Dozen Runs

By FRED DE LUCA

NEW YORK (INS)—Whatever became of the "Jackrabbit" in baseball that everyone—most of all the pitchers—said would ruin the game?

That's the question being asked by the National League's long distance sluggers, who ordinarily blast homers at a dime-a-dozen clip but who have been happy lately to settle for singles.

Even More Effective

It was bad enough when the four NL games Tuesday produced three shutouts and a total of just 15 runs, including five homers, but yesterday the pitching became even more effective. There were two more shutouts, no team scored more than three runs and the entire league in four games could deliver a total of only 12 runs.

To top off the pitchers' evening, there was only one homer—and that by Milwaukee's Wes Covington to prevent a third shutout.

The whitewash jobs were applied by Larry Jackson of St. Louis, who threw a three-hit, 3-0 masterpiece at Brooklyn, and Cincinnati's Joe Nuxhall, who blanked Pittsburgh, 2 to 0, on eight hits.

Covington's homer was Milwaukee's only run as the Braves went down, 3 to 1, before the five-hit hurling of Philadelphia's ace rookie, Jack Sanford, who won his 13th game in 16 decisions.

In the league's only day game, Don Elston pitched a seven-hitter as the Chicago Cubs whipped Johnny Antonelli and the New York Giants, 2 to 1.

Braves Still Lead

With front-running Milwaukee and Brooklyn losing their games, and the other three contenders winning, the NL flag picture finds the Braves still leading the Dodgers by one game with St. Louis 1½ out, fourth-place Cincinnati two behind and the Phils 3½ back.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox climbed to within 4½ games of New York by beating the Yankees, 7 to 2, behind Billy Pierce, who chalked up his 14th victory of the year, tops in the majors. Boston's Tom Brewer notched his 12th win by beating Kansas City, 6 to 5, with the Red Sox scoring all their runs in the fourth inning.

Cleveland and Washington split a two-night doubleheader. The Indians won, 4 to 3, by tallying twice in the ninth, and then Lou Berberet's two-out two-run pinch homer in the ninth gave the Senators and Chuck Stobbs a 5-to-4 victory over Early Wynn. Detroit's Paul Foytack won his 11th as the Tigers beat Baltimore and Billy Loes, 5 to 1.

Sox Defeat Ford

The only damaging blow among the seven Pierce allowed the Yanks was Yogi Berra's homer. The Chicks collected 13 hits and scored three times in the first inning off Whitey Ford. Luis Aparicio had four hits.

The Boston explosion came against Ralph Terry and gave Brewer his 14th straight win over Kansas City. Woody held hit a two-run homer for the A's.

Camilo Pascual lost the opener for Washington as reliever Cal McLish picked up the decision. Roy Sievers homered for the Losers. Berberet's blast offset two homers by Cleveland's Al Smith and gave Wynn his 11th loss now is 4-and-13 with three of the wins coming against Cleveland.

Foytack pitched four-hit ball for Detroit and singled home the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning off Loes, who now is 10-and-5.

Sanford Bats In Run

In outpitching Milwaukee's Gene Conley, Sanford struck out eight Braves to lift his league-leading total of whiffs to 124. He also drove in one run with a double. Another came in on Richie Ashburn's triple.

Jackson also struck out eight as he stifled the Brooks bats. Del Ennis doubled in the first run off Sal Maglie and Al Dark trip led twice and scored the other runs. Jackson is 11-and-5.

Pittsburgh's Bob Friend was the loser against Nuxhall's mastery. Dick Groat collected four singles in four at-bats for the Pirates in raising his batting average ten points to .333.

Ellerslie Batters Maroons By 15-4

Last-place Ellerslie rose up to wallopp LaVale Maroons, 15-4 yesterday in a Pen-Mar Little League contest at LaVale.

Jim Lowery pitched the cellar-dwellers to the triumph, spacing three hits and also chipping in with two hits. John Lowery socked a homer and pair of singles, Joe Brewer and George Conner had two singles each and Jim Clower smacked a double for the winners.

Ellerslie . . . 23 01-25 11 1
LaVale Maroons . . . 012 00-4 2 2
Jim Lowery, Gene Conley, Frankie Rykos, Stone (L), RH—Jim Lowery (Ellerslie).

RIVERA MAKES ROUND OF DIVES—It is one dive after another for Chicago White Sox right-fielder Jim Rivera in eighth inning of game with Yankees in Yankee Stadium yesterday. At top, Rivera, running for pinch-hitter Walt Dropo, who singled, dives into second ahead of Yogi Berra's throw to short.

Stop Tony Kubek to steal second. At bottom, Rivera dives home to score on teammate Luis Aparicio's fourth hit of the day, a single to center. White Sox catcher Les Moss, 12, signals Rivera home as Berra awaits ball from center-fielder Mickey Mantle. White Sox won, 7-2. (AP Photofax)

Kiwanis Seeks Third Place; Rotary, Elks Nab Victories

Kiwanis Club, on a four-game win streak, has a chance of moving into third place in the Hot Stove Baseball League this evening if getting by Lions in their clash at Penn Avenue Field.

The contest will be at 8:15 and follow the opener of a twin bill between winless Exchange Club and Jaycees at 6 o'clock.

Can Pass B'nai Brith

Kiwanis, with an 8-5 record, can vault over B'nai Brith if winning tonight. The Brithmen were handed a 4-0 white washing yesterday by runnerup Elks and now have won 10 while dropping six.

Tonight's game is the third between Kiwanis and Lions with the teams having split their previous two. The Lions bagged the opener, 6-4, and then were on the short end of a 12-inning, 6-5, battle the last time around. Lions have won six of 14 starts.

Exchange, almost cracking its victory drought the last time out in losing to pacing Rotary, 6-5, in nine innings, gets another try this evening. Their streak now has reached 15 games. Jaycees have hit a snag in recent starts and carries a 7-5 mark in the fray. They have won by 12-1 and 7-3 over the Exchange.

Rotary Sails Along

Rotary continued to sail along in high style yesterday with a thrilling 3-2 win over Optimist at Penn Avenue. Jim Rice was the double hero in pitching and batting his mates to victory No. 13 in 15 starts.

Rice gave up only four hits in the six innings he worked while fanning 10 before being relieved by Roger Manges. Manges fanned the side in the last frame to seal the victory. Rice belted three hits while "Pete" Lease came through with two hits, both singles.

Bill Scheetz garnered half the bingles for the Optimists off Rice's delivery, getting two singles. Davidson went the route on the hill for the losers, allowing seven hits and striking out 12.

Nave Notches Sixth

Don Nave pitched a four-hit shutout as the Elks chalked up their 11th triumph in the Hot Stove League yesterday at East Side field in defeating B'nai Brith.

The victory was the sixth in seven starts for Nave who struck out nine and walked only two in blanking the third place club. The Elks registered all their runs in the first inning, highlighted by Nave's homer with a mate aboard. Ronnie Speir was the victim of the outburst before he settled down to hurl six-hit ball in a losing effort. Nave also had a two-bagger and a single for half his team's hits.

Jimmy Cox collected a double and single for B'nai Brith. Score:

At Penn Avenue
Rotary . . . 100 010 0-2 2 1
Optimist . . . 000 000 0-2 2 1
Nave, Manges (7) and J. Ranker, Davidson and Goss, WR—Rice.

At East Side
Elks . . . 100 000 0-4 0 0
B'nai Brith . . . 000 000 0-0 0 0
Nave and Grawden, Speir and Mulligan, WR—Nave (12th).

Barclay To Assist Tatum As Coach

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Former Head Coach George Barclay will join Jim Tatum's University of North Carolina football coaching staff this fall, Tatum said yesterday.

Barclay, who directed the football fortunes of the Tar Heels from 1953 to 1955, will assist in coaching the line, Tatum stated. He added, "I'll be a seasonal job for George. He will continue to operate his service station here."

Barclay, who was a star guard at UNC, is the second newcomer to join Tatum. Bud Carson, who played for the Tar Heels back in the Charlie Justice era, has been acquired to handle the freshmen. Barclay served as assistant freshman coach under Tatum at North Carolina in 1949, was Tatum's assistant at Jacksonville Naval Base in 1944-45, and served under him at Maryland from 1947 to 1949. Tatum replaced Barclay as UNC head coach in 1956.

The lone casualty in the seeded ranks was John Dorsey of Keyser, No. 6, who was eliminated by John Wells of New Martinsville, 6-1, 6-2, in the men's division.

All of today's singles action was to be completed by noon to clear the courts for the doubles play. Rain which washed out all but 11 men's singles matches Monday has put the tournament program behind schedule.

As all things must, the winning streak of the Knights of Columbus came to an end in the City Softball League yesterday. Cutlits were the Hermans and Hayden Phillips who handed the Caseys a 5-0 shutout behind the one-hit tossing of the veteran Phillips at Stitzer Field.

The loss, the first for the Caseys in 13 games, shoved them into a tie with Hermans for the lead in the loop. Both clubs have won 12 and lost three.

Clark's Hit Spoils Bid

A single by Mickey "Stan Musial" Clark in the third inning robbed Phillips of his no-hitter. Homers by Gene Basilio and "Woody" Woodson powered the winners. Woodson also had a single.

The meeting was the fourth between the two clubs and shows them even in the series. The Hermans took the opener, 2-1 in 10 innings, and then dropped 7-5 and 3-2 battles.

Experts Dump Bakers

Old Experts dropped Blue Ribbon Bakery deeper into the cellar with a 4-3 conquest at Post Field. Sonny Shaffer's six-hit hurling was too much for the Bakers.

Shaffer also came through with a timely single in the sixth to tie the score. George McGregor's one-bagger drove in the winning tally in the same frame.

GRAY'S WINS, 14-10, AGAINST RESERVES

With 29 hits being socked, Gray's Tavern whipped Marine Reserves, 14-10, yesterday at Rolling Mill diamond in the lone Rec Softball League contest.

Jim Ellsworth snacked a homer and single, Rich Cunningham clouted a four-baser and triple. Ivan Abe had three doubles. Dick Morgan and Lee Cover each had three hits to pace the Gray's 17-hit onslaught.

Stars Provided With Kick Talent

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—If the College All Stars have to do much punting against the New York Giants Aug. 9 — and coaches hope it won't be necessary — they will be well provided with talent.

Head Coach Curly Lambeau has combed the ranks to determine which of his collegians can boot the Stars out of trouble if the need arises in the midsummer football classic at Soldier Field.

He found plenty of ability in this group:

Ron Kramer, Michigan end; Paul Hornung, Notre Dame quarterback; Len Dawson, Purdue quarterback; Jack Johnson, Miami, Fla., end; Clarence Peaks, Michigan State back; Del Shofner, Baylor back; Jim Riddle, Syracuse back; and Abe Woodson, Illinois back.

Faltering Sox, Senators Seek To Snap Spins

Senators and Red Sox, having trouble in the second-half race after winning playoffs to reign as first-half champions in their divisions of the Dapper Dan Little League, will both be in action this evening.

The Sox, who took the Dan Division title and are playoff champs from last summer, will meet Dodgers today at East Side Field. Senators take on Braves in an Abrams Division clash at Allegany Field. Both tilts are to begin at 6 o'clock.

Sox Trail Phillies

Sox trail Phillies, the club they beat for the first-half crown, with only one win and a pair of setbacks. The Phils have won all three starts with one of the wins being a 12-8 rout of the Soxers. Dodgers have yet to win in three starts with one of the (Continued on Page 31)

Bad Breaks Offset Skill

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Mr. X writes, "West opened the four of spades against my slam contract. I won in dummy and led the singleton club. East won that trick and played a second trump. This left me with three clubs to get rid of. I trumped one in dummy and played the ace and king of hearts. My intention was to trump a last trump after pulling East's last trump return to dummy with the ace of diamonds and discard my two remaining clubs on dummy's queen and seven of hearts.

"This play would have worked against any reasonable heart break. Unfortunately East trumped the second heart lead and promptly cashed a high club to set me two tricks.

"Do I qualify as a member of the Hard Luck Joe club?"

Mr. X does not qualify as a member. Hard Luck Joe always is set by bad breaks but invariably he aids the bad breaks by his own misplays.

South had plenty of hard luck. Without the spade opening he would have had no trouble making his contract. Most players would have opened the ten of clubs with the West hand so he had real tough luck in his choice of opponents.

Even with the spade opening and second spade play South had a good chance to make his contract. He gave it the best possible play and only the horrible break in hearts knocked him out of the box.

Southern Demos Can Thank Eisenhower Administration for Rights Bill

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON 25 — Southern Democrats can thank the Eisenhower administration for a big assist in shooting the President's civil rights bill to pieces, Eisenhower and Atty. Gen. Brownell both contributed.

Eisenhower helped the Southerners' complaint that the bill was full of hidden gimmicks by saying, just before it came up in the Senate, there were some things in it he didn't understand himself.

That was on July 3, one day after a savage Southern attack on the bill as "cunning and evasive."

All year until then he had been calling it "moderate and decent."

By July 3 he had had plenty of time to understand. It was before Congress two years. In June, with his backing, the House passed it. In those two years it should not have taken one of his lawyers more than an hour to give him a full explanation.

Brownell helped the Southerners not by saying too much but by saying too little.

His Justice Department lawyers wrote the bill. But never, at repeated appearances before congressional committees, did he volunteer or give under hard questioning full information on all that charge of cunning by frankly talking about them months ago.

Part 3 of the four-part bill would do.

The result: When the Southerners dug up a couple of features about Part 3—on the use of troops and compulsory informers—it came as a surprise, even to some of the bill's most ardent Senate supporters.

The Southerners made the troops and informer angles two of their major points of attack. If Brownell himself knew about these two angles, he could have deprived them at least of the element of surprise and the conspiracy to violate someone's civil rights but didn't tell the government.

Since those laws on troops and informers apply to Section 1985, they would also apply if the Eisenhower bill was passed to amend and strengthen the section.

There was no reason for surprise about this, for none of this was actually hidden from anyone who took the trouble to look up civil rights laws in a book called the U.S. Code, which is a compilation of laws.

Section 1985 and the laws on troops and informers are all there within three pages of one another, and they show, if anyone readers, both old laws could be repealed.

The government wouldn't have lost a shred of power, for there are other laws, not related directly to the Eisenhower bill, under which the President could use troops to back up a court order in civil rights cases.

But Brownell said nothing. The Southerners said plenty. To appease them, the rest of the Senate this week repealed the use-of-troops law which applies to Section 1985. This, of course, was an empty gesture in view of the fact that the other laws on the use of troops still stay on the books.

By frankly telling Congress of the relation between the Eisenhower bill, Section 1985, and the laws on troops and informers, and saying, since the President wanted to use neither troops nor inform-

But by midweek the Southerners had created so much misgiving in the Senate about Part 3 of the bill that yesterday the Senate knocked that out altogether. Now the administration has only pieces of its bill left.
